Acalanes Trustees Ask Tax Limit of $2.25; Vote Feb. 25

An election will be held February 25 on a proposal to raise the Acalanes High School District tax limit from $1.75 to $2.25.

The district trustees on Tuesday decided to submit the higher limit to the voters due to a "continued rapid enrollment growth."

Will C. Hall, chairman of the board, said "The Acalanes District is the fastest growing high school district in the county, and one of the fastest growing in the state."

HE ADDED that the district has averaged a 20 per cent enrollment increase for several years, adding from 450 to 500 additional students each year.

"The post war babies are starting to leave elementary classes to enter high school and continued rapid enrollment growth lies ahead," he said.

Decision to ask for the increased limit followed a "complete study of the enrollment problem and the district's financial capabilities to meet it."

Hall noted that although the present limit of $1.75 was set four years ago, trustees had managed to hold off taxing at the limit until this year.

"A NEW LIMIT of $2.25 does not mean that the tax rate will shoot right up to the limit.

"The new limit enables the district to effectively meet and plan for educational problems both now and in the future," he asserted.

The current district tax rate is $1.75. Trustees agreed that a rate in excess of the present limit will be needed if the "Acalanes District is to maintain educational standards and keep up with required physical facilities."

It also was announced that William Lee of 1837 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Don Mitchell, Acalanes High School District trustees who has moved out of the high school district and tendered his resignation.

Lee is an executive with Marshall Steel Company of Oakland, the father of four children and a graduate of Stanford University. Mitchell formerly resided at 1771 Lilac Drive, Walnut Creek.

Orindans Get Association Ballots

14 Candidates on List; 6 Directors to Be Chosen

Although the Orinda Association Board of Directors held a regular meeting Monday night at Orinda School auditorium, the board's major activity that evening was the stuffing of association ballots in envelopes mailed this week to some 3300 Orinda homes.

The regular meeting was devoted mainly to preliminary discussion of proposed changes in the organization's constitution and by-laws, as suggested by the constitution and by-laws committee, headed by Holland DuBois. It was decided to resume discussion at a special board session on the subject at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

After the regular meeting was adjourned Monday night, the directors went to Secretary Claire Ward's home at 93 El Toyonal for the stuffing of ballots.

THE BALLOTS are to be returned to the association by next Thursday. Counting of the ballots by the directors is scheduled for the night of December 30, with the Rev. Chauncey Blossom of the Orinda Community Church and Stanley Allen as impartial observers.

To be elected are six directors, who will join holdover directors Art Flint, Fred Twining and Norman Cunningham on the 1958 board.

The community-wide membership of the association will vote for all directorships, but one new director will be chosen for each association area in which a board vacancy occurs.

Also on the 1958 board will be Gene Estes, current president, whose two-year term is expiring but who, as immediate past president, will be on next year's board as a director-at-large.

FIVE of the new directors will serve two-year terms; they will replace directors whose two-year terms are expiring at the end of this year. Candidates for these posts are:

To replace Marvin Baker—H. C. Booth, Donovan DeWitt, Rachel Koehler; to replace Holland DuBois—Donald E. Manuel, William Thornton White Jr.; to replace Gene Estes—Richard W. Leland, Arthur A. Pedersen; to replace Robert Walpole — Lyle Gardiner, Heber Smith; to replace Claire Ward—Donald Anderson, Kenneth B. Anderson, Eric H. Nielsen.

To replace Dorothy Adie (who has moved from the area), for the unexpired one year remaining of her term—Howard J. Dauphinee, Dr. Ralph C. Hall.

FOLLOWING the recommendation of the Civic Affairs Committee, the board has decided that the election is to be conducted on the following basis:

1. All members who are 1957 members in good standing are permitted to vote.

2. All persons who became 1958 members during the recent membership drive are permitted to vote.

3. All others in Orinda have also been mailed ballots; each of these ballots will be counted if the return ballot is accompanied by a membership dues check for 1958.

Orinda Man of the Year Committee Now at Work

The Orinda Man of the Year Committee was at work this week, studying the record of community activities by many Orinda citizens. In a few weeks the committee will name the person it considers most deserving of the honorary title, "Orinda Man (or Woman) of the Year for 1957."

The Committee consists of W. E. (Gene) Estes, chairman; Maynard Buehler and Mrs. James Irwin. Although the annual Man of the Year award is sponsored by The Sun, selection is by the committee.

The committee is eager for your suggestions. However, it is free to consider or choose any person it deems worthy, whether or not that person has been recommended by the public.

THE THREE MEMBERS of the Orinda Man of the Year Committee are familiar with the many civic projects in Orinda, and they have a deep appreciation of the fact that many public-spirited Orinda citizens have devoted much time and energy for the betterment of the community.

Estes is president of the Orinda Association. Buehler is president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Irwin is president of the Orinda Mothers Club.

The committee requests that you send in your suggestions as soon as possible, so that the fullest consideration can be given. If your suggestions are sent to this paper, they will be turned over to the committee—but to spend the process, it's best if you send your suggestion directly to Estes, 33 Van Ripper Lane, Orinda.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the person selected as Orinda Man (or Woman) of the Year will be made in the January 3 issue of The Sun.

The honored person will receive a certificate at a dinner gathering January 11 at the Orinda Willows. The dinner will be a joint award banquet, co-sponsored by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce and The Sun.

At that gathering the Orinda Jaycees will present their own special award to Professor Robert Karplus, who has been chosen as Orinda's Outstanding Young Man of 1957.

Blevins Gets Fellowship

A science faculty fellowship, one of 60 conferred this year by the National Science Fund, Office of Scientific Personnel, Washington, D. C., has been awarded Charles E. Blevins of Orinda, West Contra Costa Junior College life sciences instructor.

Permission to take a year's leave of absence starting next July 1 was granted Blevins by the junior college district governing board recently. He will do post master's work in gross anatomy, histology and medical physiology at University of California and the U. C. Medical Center when it moves to San Francisco.

The award, comparable to the Ford Foundation fellowships, is a recognition at national level of junior college faculties and their professional growth. It is being given specifically for science teachers for the first time. In the past, the awards have almost always gone to faculty members of four-year colleges and universities.

Blevins, who holds a master's degree from Stanford University has done one year of post master's work already at the University of Chicago. Since he joined the junior college staff in 1950 he has taught physiology and human biology.

Jaycees Announce Karplus 'Outstanding Young Man'

The Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting at Orinda Willows announced Tuesday night that Professor Robert Karplus of the University of California Physics Department, who lives at 57 Overhill Road, has been selected as Orinda's "Outstanding Young Man of 1957."

Announcement was made by President Jim Dana and John Miller, chairman of the Jaycee Unit's Outstanding Young Man committee. Judges were Merle Brown, Donald Dullum and Dr. Ralph Hall. They picked Karplus from a field of five finalists, including — in addition to Karplus — Robert McAdam, W. E. Estes, Joseph Longacre and the Rev. Albert Lucas.

Dana stated that Professor Karplus will be presented with his official award January 11 at a joint awards banquet at Orinda Willows, to be co-sponsored by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce and The Sun.

THE PROGRAM at that gathering will include, in addition to the presentation of the Jaycees' award, the presentation by The Sun of a certificate to the Orinda Man (or Woman) of the Year in the annual award-event sponsored by The Sun.

Chairman of the Jaycee banquet committee is Robert B. Wale.

In announcing selection of Karplus, President Dana said:

"Professor Karplus is 30 years old. He received his Ph.D. in Chemical Physics from Harvard in 1948 at the age of 21. Two years later he became assistant professor of Physics at Harvard. In 1954 he joined the Physics Department at California as an associate professor.

"HE WAS SELECTED on the basis of his contribution to his field of work. He is a theoretical physicist specializing in elementary particle physics. He has been a consultant to a transistor manufacturer in Boston, Mass., and is now a consultant to the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation in their development of atomic reactors. Professor Karplus is also a consultant to Convair Corporation on their guided missile program. He has worked at the Livermore Research Laboratories on Classified research work and has aided in the solution of many of their problems. He also works on research at the Radiation Laboratory at the University of California.

"Professor Karplus has contributed to or written himself 30 reports which have been published in many scientific journals. He has written scientific papers that have been presented to the Physics Society and International Congress in Vienna. The National Science Foundation has granted him funds to help defray the cost of research work of his own choosing.

"He is contributing to the general welfare of the people by his instruction to his students in physics. His classes at California are made up mainly of graduate students seeking their Ph.D. degree.

"PROFESSOR KARPLUS uses his graduate students in his research work covered by his grant from the National Science Foundation. In this way his students have a chance to do research work they normally would not have a chance to do.

"Locally, Professor Karplus is on the Board of Orindans, Inc., and is their representative to the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association. He is the father of five children.

"He is also Orinda's candidate for one of the Five Outstanding Young Men of California."

Heirs to Airds Prefer Sundays For Arrival

Prenatal influence is not just an old-fashioned idea, according to Donald Aird, choirmaster and organist at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

For example, both of his and Mrs. Aird's children were born at the precise hours when he was playing at religious services.

Three years ago, Brooke Aird entered the world at Berkeley's Alta Bates Community Hospital, during the 11 a.m. service at St. Stephens His anxious dad ducked out to call the hospital at every opportunity.

Last Sunday, a litle girl, presently referred to only as "Miss Aird" was born at 10:30 a.m. in Merritt Hospital, Oakland, while Papa provided inspirational music on the fine organ at Stanford Chapel, Palo Alto. Nervous and harrassed he was, as before.

To top it all, dad in true artistic tradition gave a concert at 4 p.m. at Stanford University on the same hectic day. Things are still so confused that the poor babe remains nameless!

Somehow, the Airds thought they'd go on having boys forever. But careful thought is being put to the naming, and all will be well in a few days.

Meanwhile, Donald Aird will continue as choirmaster at St. Stephen's Episcopal church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda. His lovely wife will hum lullabies in the fine soprano which, as Carol Brooke, has brought her acclaim on bay area stage and radio.

Aird will resume his place as regular organist at St. Stephen's church on December 22. During the past four months he has replaced Herbert Nanney at Stanford chapel.

He will, however, continue his lectures in music at Stanford University, as well as his teaching of piano there.

Doyle Lashes Out at Christopher's Name-Calling Tactics

By BOB RAPIDA

Continued support for Governor Goodwin J. Knight in the forthcoming United States Senatorial campaign was reiterated by Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette yesterday.

In an interview with The Sun, Doyle stated that he had no personal quarrel with Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco, who also seeks the senatorial seat vacated by Senator William F. Knowland, nor does Doyle feel that Christopher should drop out of the race, but if Christopher does stay in the race he should conduct the campaign on issues and not personalities.

DOYLE HAS MARKED Christopher's actions in challenging the integrity of the vice president and the president himself as a great disservice to the entire party.

Christopher has retorted to Doyle's comments as being the handiwork of Whitaker and Baxter, a public relations firm supporting Knight for governor and now for US senator.

Doyle noted that the comments were of his own making and as vice chairman of the Republican party in California it was his duty to try and keep the party united and to stop unfounded charges and allegations aimed at virtually everyone in the party from the Governor to Nixon and Eisenhower.

"THE UNFOUNDED charges Mayor Christopher continues to make are a sorry reflection on the Mayor and a great disservice to the entire Party," said Doyle.

"Mr. Christopher's statements make him as a recklessly immature and irresponsible person who has branded himself unfit for the high office he seeks.

"He is beginning to sound like a man who is off his rocker," Doyle declared.

Doyle noted his own resentment toward Christopher's comments as a long time worker on behalf of the party. Such actions on the part of the mayor, can only do the party tragic and irreparable damage, he continued.

THE MAYOR has every right in the world to run for senator, Doyle remarked.

"He has a good many friends in both northern and southern California but, a man less than two years a mayor who has the colossal effrontery to make the president of the United States a target of his wrath, has proven that he is not fit for the office that he seeks," Doyle noted.

Asked if Doyle would continue his support of Knight in light of Knowland's bid for the governorship Doyle said:

"By my public performance everyone knows where I stand at all times. I am loyal to all those who have been loyal to me. Loyalty means more to me than winning any election."

KNIGHT BACKED Doyle in his bid for the State vice chairmanship of the party. Doyle was also supported by Knowland, Senator Tom Kuechel, Nixon.

Christopher charges that Knight bases his campaign for the Senate on White House support. Knight has said that he has neither sought nor been offered presidential endorsement.

"It is the opinion of all republican leaders I have talked with that Nixon endorsed Governor Knight because he believes him to be the best qualified candidate and not because anyone else is in or out of the race," said Doyle.

Christopher charged that political aid, later described as a "Bribe" had been offered him by some anonymous Republican leaders who urged him to drop out of the senate race in exchange for a virtual guarantee of the governorship later.

DOYLE ANSWERED the charge by declaring that Christopher has an absolute duty to turn over this information to the attorney general to name names and to assist in the prosecution of the person or person he names, if the charge is true.

Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, attorney general and probably the Democratic candidate for governor, has requested that Christopher give his office all the information on the alleged bribe.

"Unless he (Christopher) produces these names—and I here and now publicly challenge him to do so — Mayor Christopher stands guilty of pursuing tactics as disgraceful as those of a poison pen writer," Doyle charged.

Doyle continued to compare the "immaturity and unfitness" of the Mayor of San Francisco with the "generous attitudes" of the other Republican candidates for the senate by saying:

"CHRISTOPHER'S reckless statements have piled evidence of his immaturity and unfitness for the United States Senate.

"If he is to be taken seriously in this contest, it is high time for him to present his own qualifications and to begin a constructive campaign instead of simply seeking to belittle others.

"In sharp contrast, clearly noted by the public, has been the gentlemenly and generous attitudes of the other republican candidates for the senate in their dealings with each other.

"Governor Knight, Controller Kirkwood and Don Atherton are running their own campaigns without rancor or personal attacks upon their Republican opponents.

"THIS IS THE spirit in which all responsible citizens expect campaigns for high public office to be conducted, "Doyle said.

As to his own political plans, Doyle commented that he would announce in a public statement in January his personal plans for the future.

Doyle is presumably next in line for the chairmanship of the party in California. Traditionally, the chairman is picked from the southern sector of the state one year and the north the next.

ASKED IF he would support Knowland in the gubernatorial race, Doyle stated he would support the Republican party's choice.

Doyle earlier, as vice chairman of the party, had urged Knowland to withdraw from the gubanatorial race in favor of Knight in order to avoid a split in the party.

Knight reportedly had promised that he would seek relection, but later changed his mind in favor of the senatorial seat which was vacated by Knowland for a shot at the governorship.

KNOWLAND HAS been charged, in his bid for the governorship, as seeking to use the position, should he be elected, as a stepping stone to the presidency.

Clair Engle, congressman from the second district, will most likely be Knight's opponent in the senatorial race.

Cub Pack 32 held an annual Christmas party last Friday night, at the Orinda School. The theme was Christmas in Europe.

Dyke DeWitt of Den 9 and Scott Doten of Den 3 explained how Christmas is celebrated in Holland. Jackie Epperson of Den 6 explained Christmas in Grece, and Ritchy Tokitch of Den 11 reported on Christmas in Ireland.

New Bobcats, Chris Slattery, Steve Spott, and Robin Pitchard were given a rousing welcome into the Pack. Jackie Epperson was awarded a Gold Arrow on Wolf, and Bruce Reid received his one-year pin.

Fololwing this, the Christmas party began with each Cub hanging an ornament which he had made on a large Christmas tree

Each of the Cubs brought jigsaw puzzles, bean bags and other gifts which they had made themselves for presentation to the children in the Sonoma State Hospital for mentally retarded children at Eldridge, California.

Abolition of Fire Coordinator Post Asked by Citizens

If the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors accepts a recommendation of the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association the post recently created county position of Coordinator of Fire Districts will be the most short lived in the county's history.

The position, which is still vacant, should be abolished, according to a letter of the Taxpayer group which was forwarded to the Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

Instead of the coordinator, the organization asked the board to make the functions of the office the responsibility of the county administrator's office.

The fire district post was created by the supervisors following the recommendation of the Public Administration Services firm, which stated such a move would be a means of increasing efficiency in the various districts and would be a means of making uniform policy on such matters as pay, hours, equipment and other issues.

Utilities Ordered to Fight El Paso Gas Rate Increase

The California Public Utilities Commission ordered utilities in this state which purchase gas from El Paso Natural Gas Company to take vigorous action at once to prevent a proposed increase in price by El Paso from being put into effect next January 1.

Because of the proposed El Paso increase, four California companies have applied for higher rates, starting next January 1, which would add $19,399,000 per year to the total charges paid by their customers.

THE COMMISSION said it issued the interim order to the California utilities in the light of the November 21 decision by the United Sttaes Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in the case of Memphis Light, Gas and Water Division versus the Federal Power Commission.

The federal court said in its decision that the supplier could not raise its rates under Section 4(e) of the Natural Gas Act, without consent of the purchasers who had contracts for gas at definite prices.

Section 4(e) had been interpreted by the Federal Power Commission as permitting a supplier to put a rate increase into effect under bond before it had lawfully been found by the FPC to be justified.

THE CALIFORNIA Commission said it would take final action later on the applications for offsetting raise sought by Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Gas Company, Southern Counties Gas Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

It ordered each of the utilities:

(1) To refrain from consenting, or manifesting any consent whatever, to the increases proposed by El Paso, to go into effect January 1;

(2) To file with the Federal Power Commission a motion requesting the FPC to prohibit El Paso from raising rates on January 1;

(3) To prosecute "diligently, vigorously and in good faith" before the FPC and the courts whatever legal rights it may have as a result of the precedent established by the November 21 decision; and

(4) To file promptly with the California PUC a verified report describing steps taken and future action to be taken pursuant to the above orders.

THE COMMISSION said that it believes the utilities in this state, under their contracts with El Paso, have essentially the same legal rights as did the Memphis company with its supplier, United Gas Pipe Line Company.

Edge to County's Bidders for Jobs Dies in Martinez

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors policy that county bidders for county business have a two percent edge died in Martinez.

The supervisors accepted the advice of District Attorney Francis Collins that the practice was of "questionable legality" and voted unanimously to recind the policy.

THE POLICY was set June 19 and was set up on the premise that county bidders pay county taxes and out of county bidders pay taxes to other counties.

In other action December 5, the board ordered the civil service commission to prepare recommendations on pay increases for Assistant County Clerk Gordon Estes and Assistant County Recorded Hoyt Hayden because of the new responsibilities undertaken by the two since the merger of the two offices.

THE BOARD authorized payment of $750 to the Pleasant Hill Park and Recreation District for 9278 square feet of property on Gregory Lane in Pleasant Hill.

The board also allocated $1660 for a garage addition on the county storage area in Lafayette.

Sewer District Eases Highest Assessment Ever

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District will help ease the highest single assessment in the history of the district in the Oak Drive and Crestview Drive neighborhood in Orinda.

Directors of the distirct, in confirming the assessments on the 73 lot area, authorized a district contribution of $21,610 toward Local Improvement District 37 because of inequities.

The per-unit assessment figure, which was set at $2012, is now $1600 to $1800.

In other business the directors decided to postpone until some time in January a tour of the Pacheco Treatment Plant now being enlarged to carry twice its original capacity. The job is being done at a cost of $1.5 million and is scheduled for completion in 1959.

Sheriff Adds Patrol Car in Central Area

Police protection in Central Contra Costa County will be increased by at least one patrol unit of the Sheriff's department, Harry A. Brown promised Tuesday in Martinez.

The announcement followed action by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors creating four more positions in the radio communications center.

Brown commented that this would free four deputies for patrol duties. Brown stated he would assign one of the two man patrol cars in the central county area and the other in the western portion of the county (Crockett-Rodeo-El Sobrante). The two units will be on the swing shift (4 p.m. to midnight).

Batis Death Inquest is Wednesday

An inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Philip Batis, 30, of West Pittsburg, will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Walnut Creek.

Batis was killed on November 14, when tons of wet concrete forming a link in the deck of the Camplin Avenue culvert collapsed, crushing him. He was standing inside the culvert, near his truck, when the concrete crashed through the beam supports, covering him.

Dr. L. H. Fraser of Richmond, county coroner, will conduct the inquest. Constable Clinton Jones will subpoena witnesses and designate from six to 15 men or women to serve as jurors.

The purpose of the inquest, said Fraser is to determine, if possible, the responsibility of parties involved, and confirm the cause of death.

Reports by sheriff's deputies and police officers will be heard, and autopsy findings will be presented.

The culvert job was part of the Little Master Plan, which is under contract to the Oscar Holmes Company.

Batis was separated from his wife, who lives in Oakland. Their small son lives with Mrs. Batis.

Grand Jury Gives Approval For CC School Site Survey

A $35,000 county-wide school site survey was endorsed Tuesday by the Contra Costa Grand Jury to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

The study, should it be authorized, would be conducted by the Stanford Research Institute of Stanford-University. The plan was proposed last spring by the Contra Costa County Board of Education.

NO PROVISIONS for the proposed program were made in the county budget, but the supervisors asked Howard McNamer, county auditor, to attempt to obtain $5000 for the project so it can at least be started and slated for completion sometime in 1959.

Mel Nielsen, second district supervisor, noted that obtaining funds would be a problem but not as great a problem as obtaining cooperation from the various school districts.

He suggested that a representative of each of the county's school boards should agree to the project before it is begun by the county.

"THE SURVEY can't cure past mistakes but can prevent future errors," said Ivan T. Goyak, first district supervisor from Richmond.

Endorsement of the plan has also been given by the Superintendent of Schools, B. O. Wilson; Thomas Heaton of the Contra Costa Planning staff and the County Taxpayers Association.

Desmond Teeter, county administrator, said such surveys by Stanford in other areas and states present overwhelming evidence that advance planning and purchasing of school sites will mean substantial savings to all county taxpayers.

"The next session of the Legislature will be asked to set up a revolving fund so that school sites may be purchased far in the future and the money repaid when construction actually starts," said Teeter.

Funds Promised To Mark Valorys For Attorney Fees

Commitments for contributions toward the campaign to stop the retirement fund of ousted Contra Costa Recorder Ralph Cunningham have been assured by the Mark Valorys of Lafayette to pay for legal assistance.

The Valorys, in a one family campaign, hired an attorney to seek to author litigation proceedings through the courts to halt the over $400 monthly for life to Cunningham in retirement monies.

Letters are also being written by central county residents to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors asking them to instruct the Contra Costa District Attorney to aid in the effort to stop the retirement money.

CUNNINGHAM WAS found guilty by a superior court jury in a non-criminal trial on two counts of malfeasance in office. Under the bill of accusation submitted by the Contra Costa Grand Jury, the penalty for being found guilty was removal from office with no fine or imprisonment.

"It is my opinion that there would be an excellent chance to enjoin payment of the pension to Cunningham, but of course, we couldn't prevent his obtaining a refund of his own contributons to the pension fund, W. H. Hoogs, attorney, whote to Valory after an initial study of the case.

"The litigation will cost much more than we can afford by ourselves, no matter how important this issue is to us. It should be important to every resident of Contra Costa County, and especially those who would like to see a large-scale clean-up of our county government," said Valory.

"As our attorney has said, the winning of this case would set an important precedent for what real good does it do for us to have found out that a trusted official has been guilty of malfeasance in office and has been ousted, if we read in the next paragraph that the taxpayer will be contributing heavily to his income for the rest of his life.

"WE WOULD LIKE to continue this fight, and we would like to hear from anyone who would be willing to contribute toward the expenses involved," he continued.

Proceedings against Cunningham to stop his retirement pay would be undertaken by the Contra Costa District Attorney's office should the board of supervisors direct such action, according to Tom McBride, Assistant District Attorney.

Alamo Masons Observe 100 Years With Dinner

Alamo Lodge No. 122, F.& A.M. of Walnut Creek, celebrated its 100th birthday last night at a dinner and dance to be held on the campus of the East Contra Costa Junior College.

The principal speaker was Alfred F. Breslauer, San Francisco attorney and junior grand warden of the California Grand Lodge of Masons.

Also on the program was Abigail Van Buren, nationally syndicated columnist.

THE DINNER and dance was held in the student activities room of the junior college.

Among highlights was the display of a square and a compass made from gold contributed by members of the lodge and their friends.

Alamo Lodge was formed in Alamo in 1857. The fourth Masonic lodge instituted in the East Bay area, Alamo Lodge was the offspring of Martinez Lodge No. 41. Formal dispensation was granted by the California Grand Lodge on Dec. 12, 1857.

Many of the early members were pioneers who made the long journey west by wagon train. From 1870 to 1873, the lodge met in Danville. It moved to Walnut Creek in 1873.

THE PRESENT Masonic Temple at the corner of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Locust Street was built in 1916.

The first worshipful master of Alamo Lodge was John E. Mitchell. Among charter members was Jeremiah N. Morgan, an early California miner who discovered and settled what is now known as Morgan Territory on the slopes of Mt. Diablo.

One of the more colorful early members was Nathaniel Jones, first sheriff of Contra Costa County and a soldier with Colonel Fremont's Volunteers at the Battle of Santa Clara during the Mexican war.

Benjamin Shreye, another early lodge member, is credited with giving Lafayette its name when he established a post office in the Lafayette area.

General chairman for the centennial commemoration was William Connelly, past master of Alamo Lodge. Host was Perk Slingsby, current worshipful master.

Last Rites Held For L. L. Martin

Services for Lester L. Martin, 82, past master of the Danville Grange, were held Tuesday at the First Christian Church of Concord.

Mr. Martin, who died at his home, 610 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill, is survived by his wife, Anna; two sons, Del of Napa and Glenn of Santa Monica and three grandchildren.

Housing Group, Supervisors Plan 'Secret Meeting'

A secret meeting on personnel matters between the Contra Costa Housing Authority and the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was scheduled to be held late yesterday afternoon in Martinez.

Chairman of the Board of Supervisors Ray S. Taylor noted that under the provisions of the Brown Act, the anti-secrecy in government law, personnel matters could be discussed in private.

No indication of the nature of the meeting was announced other than it was intended by the two groups to discuss individuals.

According to Martinez observers, the supervisors have been "concerned" with the operation of the Housing Authority for the past several months.

$50 Check Is Gift to Council For Retarded

Contra Costa Voiture 40 & 8, an honorary society of The American Legion has presented a check for $50 to the Council for the Retarded of East Contra Costa County, Inc.

The money will help support The Lynn School in Danville, a parent-cooperative pre-school sponsored by the council for the education of children who are mentally retarded.

Don Graham, Chef de Gare and Reggie Rice, Correspondant, presented the check to Mrs. Attilio Squeri, president of the council and Jack Clopton, planning committee chairman.

Application for Alamo Hospital To Be Pushed

Dr. Samuel Levine will present his application for rezoning to construct a 49-bed hospital in Alamo at a meeting of the County Board of Adjustment, January 15.

The hospital plans were presented at a board meeting several weeks ago, but the matter was deferred for study.

The decision to go ahead with the hospital is spite of strong objections made by neighboring home owners in the area west of Contra Costa Highway, and near Hillgrade Avenue.

Several residents said that a change to commercial zoning would be a bad precedent, admitting the future possibility of restaurants, liquor stores and the like. Their comments were made during a discussion meeting last week at the Stone Valley School.

Arthur Case, who manages the Levine General Hospital in Hayward and who would be manager here, told The Sun that he believes that "a small number of opposition didn't represent the community."

The proposed hospital would be landscaped, and would cost about a half million dollars.

DUAL-BEAM LAMPS

Dual-beam headlamps for automobiles, which provided upper and lower beams, first appeared in 1925, reports the California State Automobile Association.

STARTING TROUBLE

If your automobile's engine turns over very slowly when you press the starter the cause may be: tight engine, low battery, or unusually high resistance in the starter or ground cables.

12-VOLT BATTERY

Most cars built today are equipped with 12-volt batteries and they require more attention in keeping them clean than the 6-volt type used formerly. The reason is that a 12-volt battery has the same size 6-volt battery and less space above the plates than is more easily overfilled.

School Crossing Dates Announced

Between next Thursday and Christmas week, the 98,400 public school students of Contra Costa County will begin their annual mid-winter vacation.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson said that a majority of schools will close Christmas week and re-open January 6.

The exceptions are the schools, both elementary and high, of the San Ramon Valley and Acalanes areas, where classes will close next Thursday and resume on January 2. Contra Costa Junior College will observe vacation between December 23 and January 2.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Your editorial of December 6 on the Happy Valley situation is more than appreciated by those of us who have spent countless hours in trying to maintain the will of the majority in this question of zoning.

You have not only briefed the main points of this controversy, a matter of fundamental importance—the status of the Planning Commission recommendations.

Continued repudiation of the commission will weaken the efforts of this group which has worked hard and well in the interest of proper county zoning.

It is hoped that each member of the Board of Supervisors will read and consider well the message of your editorial before announcing his decision on this controversy.

I commend you for a public service well done.

'Pageant' is Tuesday: No Charge

Two hundred fifty Acalanes high school students will present their school's annual "Christmas present," the Acalanes Christmas Pageant, Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the high school gym.

The program will feature the Acalanes Modern Dance Group in the dance pantomime "The Little Match Girl."

The modern dance portrayal tells the story of a destitue young girl who earns a meager livelihood selling matches on the streets. Joining worshipers in the cathedral who are lighting candles as they pray, the little Match Girl lights her only possession, a match, and the entire cathedral glows in majestic brilliance.

The Acalanes band and mixed chorus and girls' chocir will also participate on the program. Each group will present favorite Christmas carols and more recent popular songs tuned to the Yuletide season.

The Acalanes Student Body, Principal Stanley Walgren, Miss Millicent Hamburger, director of modern dance, and Richard Hansen, director of music, invited the general public to the performance. Admission is free. Doors open at 7:15 p.m.

DeGuarda Opens New Building Materials Firm

Now open for business is the new Rheem Center Building Materials firm, directly across from Clark's Market. Owner is John Salvatore (Sal) DeGuarda of 90 Donna Maria Way, Orinda.

A resident of Orinda for four years, DeGuarda, a cement contractor, knows his field well, and he says he has established the firm because he believes "this area will grow faster than any other area in the county." He is offering all types of building materials — cement, sand, rock, gravel, drain tile, firewood; also Presto logs and horse feed.

Working with DeGuarda are his father, Salvatore DeGuarda Sr., who supervises the outside concrete work, and Bert Bennett (formerly a beauty operator for Bill's House of Beauty, Rheem Center), who is running the yard.

DeGuarda's service is directed mostly toward home owners, and he points out he will be happy to give advice on various "do it yourself" projects.

DeGuarda, 37, and his wife, Betty, have a daughter, Daralyn, 9, and two sons, Gregory, 7, and Dino, 5 months.

"How did you become a cement contractor?" he was asked.

"I grew up into that line of work," he replied. "My father was a contractor. Now he's working with me."

Rheem Yuletide Party for Kids Dec. 21

The first annual children's Christmas party under the sponsorship of the Rheem Center Merchants Association will be held at the Rheem Theater on Saturday, December 21.

Santa Claus, gifts for the kiddies and free movies will be features of the gay event.

President Frank Kerrigan of the association points out that admission will be free to all children 12 years of age and younger who present tickets. Free tickets are available at all Rheem Center stores.

Santa will be in the lobby of the theater from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. He will greet the youngsters.

For the next two hours—from 10:30 a.m. to about 12:30 p.m. there will be free movies. Being planned is a film program including cartoons and a comedy.

Ben Randall, manager of the Rheem Theater, is cooperating with the Rheem Center Merchants Association in putting on the affair.

Burning Permits

Due to the tremendous increase in population here the last few years, it is becoming more and more difficult to give the people of Orinda the service to which they are accustomed, in obtaining permits for open burning, according to William Koch, fire marshal.

To operate efficiently and economically and at the same time prevent any possibility of inconvenience we ask that applications for burning permits be made at least three days in advance.

Berried Plants in Bloom Make Lovely Yule Gifts

By THE GARDENER

ALTHOUGH BERRIED and blooming plants are strangers to Santa's chilly North Pole Workshop, they make charming and attractive Christmas gifts in temperate California.

Among the many excellent yule gift possibilities, the California Association of Nurserymen suggests hollies, pyracanthas, azaleas, cyclamen, African Violets and camellias.

Hollies and pyracanthas make wonderful Christmas gifts for gardening friends and relatives because they are among the most popular and useful shrubs in the state.

IN ADDITION, if gift shoppers select plant specimens in 5-gallon cans already bearing berries, the recipients are then furnished with beautiful seasonal decorations as a bonus.

Innumerable varieties of holly and pyracantha make it possible for shoppers to select low growing (pyracantha crenatoserrata Santa Cruz), medium growing (Chinese Holly) or taller types (pyracantha graberi and Rosedale).

Florist's Cyclamen (c. indicum) has long been an enthusiastically received Christmas gift plant. This graceful bulbous flower comes in white and in shades of pink and rose. Cyclamen can be planted outdoors after the holiday season and will give almost continuous bloom for several years. The best plan is to put the plant in a shady spot in moist, fertile soil.

AZALEAS and camellias rank high on any list of honored shrubs in California and the varieties in bloom during the holidays make delightful gifts. The azaleas most noted for winter bloom are the Belgian Indicas, of which there are many fine named varietics in several hues.

Two gorgeous camellia varieties usually in lush bloom during December are Daikagura Variegated (pink and white and the lovely pink Kumasaka.

Potted African Violets are great favorites with indoor gardeners, many of whom have made a hobby of filling suitable windows with many varieties and colors. This popularity indicates the welcome which will greet the African Violet as a Christmas gift .

The best environment for Afr-i can Violet is a window that provides abundant light with a minimum of direct sunlight. Generally a northern or eastern window fulfills this demand.

BECAUSE THE GIVER of a plant as a Christmas gift is naturally interested in its success, it is sometimes a good idea to obtain from the nurseryman some detailed transplanting instructions to pass on to inexperienced gardeners. These instructions are often in the form of a pamphlet and can be slipped into the gift without seeming out of place.

Christmas gift shoppers should not overlook the possibility of selecting lovely blooming plants to take to parties during the gay holiday season. A lovely potted cyclamen or African Violet is sure to delight the hostess and incidentally insure for the giver a return invitation.

Nurseries make the fresh stock they set out for the holidays as attractive as the busy season lets them, and the Christmas shopper can easily add his own special touch. A few baubles, ribbons and pine cones can give the plant a personal touch and perhaps earn for the plant a prominent place among the Christmassy ornaments of the household.

Youth Group To Entertain

The Senior Citizen Club of Walnut Creek will hold a Christmas luncheon at the Recreation Center on Thursday.

Entertainment will be provided by the youth group of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, under the direction of David Beamer, minister of Youth.

The group will provide music by the Triple Trio whose members are Sue Bashford, Sue Schneider, Gay Turner, Carol Annis, Carol Buggs, Michelle Dow, Bonnie Bigot, Donna Esiline, and Carol Gass.

Boys of the youth group participating in the program are Jim Robie, who will read a Christmas story, Herman Tysseling, song leader, and Phil Condit, who will deliver a Christmas Message.

Elaine Clark, Recreation Department hostess for the Senior Citizens said that in addition to the program by the youth group, there will be games and prizes. Prizes will be the small exchange gifts that each member is asked to bring to the party.

Senior Citizen hostesses for the event are the Mesdames Frances Nelle, Lena Richards and Dora Bayard. Serving on the comittee for Flowers and Decorations are Mrs. Millie Cecchini, Mrs. George Blakemore, and Mrs. Pearl Blaine. Helping with arrangements are Mrs. Eva McOmber and Mrs. Elizabeth McNay.

Jewish

The Friday evening services will be held tonight at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, starting at 8:30. Dr. H. Hirsch Cohen, the rabbi of the congregation, will conduct the service and preach the sermon.

The candle-lighting and blessing of the wine will be under the direction of the Center religious chairman, Fred Katzberg of Walnut Creek. The oneg shabat, a reception for the Sabbath, will be under the direction of Mrs. Fred Katzberg of Walnut Creek, League of Jewish Women Sisterhood oneg shabat chairman.

Christian Science

God's healing and saving power will be emphasized at Chistian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Kevnoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from Deuteronomy (33:27): "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

A number of experiences of the Apostle Paul are related in the Bible selections to be read, which include Paul's healing (Acts 14) of the "man as Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (343:25): "Anciently those apostles who were Jesus' students, as well as Paul who was not one of his students, healed the sick and reformed the sinner by their religion. Hence the mistake which allows words, rather than works, to follow such examples!"

Dog Trials Set

The Annual Winter Field Trials of the Sacramento Bird Dog Club will be December 14-15, according to J. Marion Thomas, president and secretary of Orinda.

OUTING

Ed Hampton of Mazie and also Sandy Herrick enjoyed flying over parts of the Bay Area and taking motion pictures. The Sunday outing was crisp but clear.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Feeling fit to be yule-tied?

Sitting here taking a breather, we decided to skip a column this week! You know how it is this time of year!!

THE HOUSE LOOKS like TILDEN PARK! Complete w/a deer-head—our latest acquisition w/which we are as delighted as some might be w/a new mink! Now hanging high on the wall, collared in pine and sporting a gold crown and ribbon and a candle atop his head, the dear of a deer has turned out to be good company while we wax and polish and decorate for the Scandinavian Christmas Coffee which is being held here Thursday (yesterday) as a benefit for the Enchanted Hills Camp for the Blind.

So surrounded by a forest of greenery we sit. With Xmas cards stacked high waiting to be addressed, a closet bulging w/presents to be wrapped and mailed, and we suddenly decide to take just ONE peek into the ornament boxes stored away since last year. And THAT is where we made our mistake!

Christmas makes a memory!

LIKE A CHILD opening a treasure chest of favorite toys that have been hidden away for awhile, we sat for hours — enjoying each bauble as we removed it gently from its tissue bed. Where did this one come from? And HOW could we forget THIS one? And that quaint passementeried tree we've had for yrs. and the little star our eldest made years ago when he was a Kindergartener.

The Swedish Angel, wooden and handpainted, has lost a leg, not to mention his halo. He can be an angel SANS leg but certainly not Sans Halo! And here are the tissue bells we sprayed gold last time—will they manage to hold up just one more season?

The tiny Norwegian, Danish and Swedish paper flags flutter out of another box—THESE so traditional and nostalgic bringing vivid recollections of our own childhood and Christmas.

On the table are some pomeander balls we started to make—Tangerines studded w/cloves, smelling delicate & spicy. An idea we came home with after a junket through Jackson's where we considered their main floor tree QUITE the most stunning we've ever seen. Real Butterflies, stuffed birds of a brilliant assortment, pheasants and quail and parakeets adorning the towering tree and pointing up the orange brilliancy of so many of the feathered friends, (as well as Jackson's modern decor), the hundreds of tangerines, sweet-smelling and clove-studded and suspended by wisps of white ribbons.

IN OUR CUPBOARDS are cannisters of Norwegian Krumkakke and other scandinavian breads & cookies which Mother and some of the branch members have helped to bake. Charlotte Chapple was over yesterday to add her deft touch w/decorating and Fae Smith, Virginia Howes and Jan Soubielle were responsible for wiring the redwood festoons which made the job of decking the walls much easier.

Phyllis Hope, who toured w/"SONG OF NORWAY" is singing selections from that favorite musical for us and Rose Rosnick, blind pianist and director of the Enchanted Hills Foundation, will give us some Grieg to go w/our GLAD JUL.

BEST OF ALL, our favorite cousin from Copenhagen is flying in for a wknd. w/us before going on to a conference, and he'll find a Little Bit of Denmark right here in the Orinda hills!!

'Tis the season to be jolly!

THE JOLLY SEASON . . . Henry and Jan Soubielle have issued clever musical note invitations bidding friends "Wouldst carol to sup w/Soubielles?" on Saturday, the 21st—THIS, the most popular date on the crowded calendar! Also on the 21st, Kathy and Jack Berard will host an Open House at their home high on El Toyonal. Jane Burr of Moraga will hostess a festive dinner party and Mike and Joan Dakis of Orchard Rd. have asked friends in on this same Saturday to share the Christmas Spirit in their new home.

Friends of the William Scatenas are looking forward to the couple's traditional dancing & supper party also slated for the 21st and Don and Twink Ellis will entertain a little earlier w/their Open House scheduled for this Sunday.

HOLIDAY MOVES are being planned by Ed and Laurie Patterson who will probably light the first fire in the hearth at their new home on Donald Drive by Christmas Eve. The Shandler Barkelews leave NY this wknd. to drive cross-country hoping to beat Santa to their Mariposa Lane residence.

It's a first Christmas for the Bob Rieser's in their new Sleepy Hollow home—ditto the Matt Hammonds!

THE MORE THE MERRIER served as an inspiration for the Heber Smiths, Bradford Heards, and the junior Philip Angells who've instigated a tremendous gathering of friends at the penthouse of the SF Bar Association to precede tomorrow night's TOWN & COUNTRY dinner dance which, for the first time, will be held across the bay at the St. Francis Hotel.

Some of those who'll celebrate pre-prandially at the Penthouse party are the Leslie Rogers', Edward Mannons, Rich and Cynthia Stampley, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Curtis and the Ed Macauleys of Lafayette.

God rest ye merry, Gentlemen!

ANOTHER LARGE pre-dance group will meet at the Treasure Island Officers' Club at the invitation of Ron and Peggy Hubbard of Tara Rd. who'll share hosting honors w/Eric and Scotty Nielsen. The Nielsens, incidentally, are happy-talking about the infanticipation of a third child next mid-year and Peggy Hubbard has a holiday coming up in February when she'll take her two young sons Chris & David to Palm Springs for a visit w/their grandparents.

Stopping mid-point on the bay crossing at the Hubbard-Nielsen invite will be the Peter Zischkes, Franklin Moulthrops, William Robinsons, Robert Bentleys, Philip Chapmans, the James Lucases and the Richard Strongs from Lafayette, as well as an endless roster of other-side-of-the-tunnel friends.

And still another early cocktail conclave before the T&C will find Ralph and Joan Kjar checking the coasters and canapes at their home on Donna Maria Way.

XMAS CARD CHANGE—The Barney Witkins (Gladys Schwatka) are currently honeymooning in Hawaii following their marriage here Dec. 5 and are expected to be "at home" after the 20th of December at 2740 Shasta Rd. in Berkeley.

CHRISTMAS CARTOON—At the cloverleaf, a tall & tremendous Xmas tree sticking out the back of a long & low Chrysler station wagon. And right behind it—a very tiny tree tied to the top of a very tiny Volkswagen!

O TANNENBAUM! O TANNENBAUM! sings our youngest as he barges in from school! And like we said, we'll just skip a column this week! There's MUCH to be done . . . Now kids, shall we go get the tree?

AL PETTLER, Orinda advertising man, combines business with pleasure by using the gardens at his home at 34 Meadow Park Court as a primary testing ground for Howards of Hemet roses. He is shown here examining one of the many lovely flowers in his gardens. His firm, at 6 Bryant Way, Orinda, has had Howards of Hemet as a long-time client. —Sun photo by Mattson

Rose by Any Other Name? Pettler Knows 'em All!

"Alfred M. Pettler — Advertising," the sign reads on a low modern office building at 6 Bryant Way, Orinda. Back in 1952 when Al Pettler resigned his partnership in a San Francisco agency and decided to open up a shop near his home in the suburbs, this was considered quite a radical departure in the advertising profession. Since then, a number of agencies have followed suit all over the nation.

Although they frequently substitute casual sports clothes for the traditional grey flannel suit, the people who make up Pettler Advertising take pride in performing the same type of hustling operation that goes on in the big city—to create and produce advertising for all types of media.

Whereas many agencies do not handle publicity and public relations for their clients, Pettler's performs this service.

THERE PROBABLY aren't too many advertising men who conduct a rose test garden at their home. Al Pettler (assisted by his wife, Annette) does — for his long-time client, Howards of Hemet, California. This client is one of the largest rose hybridizers and growers in the world. Located in Southern California, 65 miles from Palm Springs, this firm grows and ships roses at the wholesale level only. These roses are sold to nurserymen throughout the U.S., who in turn sell them to the home gardener.

Howards of Hemet has won the coveted All America Rose Selections award for two roses—Lilibet in 1954 and Tiffany in 1955. The AARS award is the "Oscar" of the rose world. This is not hard to understand when you realize that a period of seven to 10 years goes into the development of any new rose from the time it is first tested until it first becomes available at the nursery.

In order to even enter a rose in one of the 23 official All America Test Gardens, the rose must be thoroughly tested beforehand. Actually, the beautiful gardens at Al Pettler's home at 34 Meadow Park Court, Orinda, serve as a primary testing ground for Howards of Hemet roses. By doing this, the agency is able to observe first hand the growing habits, color and other factors of the various varieties, enabling them to write accurate copy.

RIGHT NOW, he has a total of 225 roses. Many of these varieties will be entered or are already in the AARS test gardens throughout the U.S.

Horticulture is one of the many fields that Pettler Advertising specializes in. For five years now it has produced, entirely within its own organization, the popular Rose Growers Handbook.

It may be a long way from flowers to poultry, but that is another field in which Pettler Advertising excels.

THE CHICKENS and turkeys that you buy at the market have a fascinating story behind them—all the way from breeder-grower to hatchery to processor and so on. Pettler's poultry clients encompass nearly every phase of these operations.

Since these poultry clients advertise for the most part to the trade, it is unlikely that the average person would ever see such an ad.

The agency also handles such diversified products as shoes, bronze products for business and industry, fire hydrants and valves, bread, Oriental imports, food machinery, swimming pools and pool equipment, cameras, pharmaceuticals and electronics

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Still enjoying your superior Sun, but are distressed at the "incorporation" blow.

Did leadership disintegrate? You only have to live in some other presumably "choice" residential suburb to appreciate to the utmost how rare are the advantages of life in Orinda, and how valued they are.

In September Joe became counsel for the Hotpoint Company, a division of General Electric, and we are in the process of building in Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

Imagine life in infamous Cook County, but we are told we will be residing in a 98 percent GOP congressional district, I bet full of arch-conservatives.

But life in Contra Costa, truly prepares one for anything.

Continued success to you and your staff.

MRS. JOE CREIGHTON.

Dear Editor:

Speaking for myself and speaking unofficially for the other protestants to the incorporation of Orinda, may I thank both of you sincerely for the very fine coverage you afforded our efforts to nullify the incorporation election.

Since the qualifying petition for the incorporation election in Orinda was based on signatures of Orinda property owners, it is only logical that the nuulification of such an election should also be based on protesting signatures of Orinda property owners.

Very truly yours,
CLARENCE E. BETZ.

Announcement of the winners will be made December 22.

FIRST PRIZE will be a $25 United States Savings Bond, donated by the association. Five other prizes of gift orders or merchandise will be awarded. These have been donated by a number of merchants, including:

Orchard Nursery, Moraga Valley Nursery, Orinda Pharmacy, Bill's Char-Broiler, Clark's Market, Center Hardware, Design Center, Patio Music Shop, Moraga Casuals, Dick McIntyre's Union Oil Station, Evandi's, Floyd Mooney Barber Shop, Bill's House of Beauty, Edward's Cleaners, Orinda Willows, Sprouse-Reitz and T and D Liquors.

The prizes of gift orders and merchandise are in various combinations.

THE LIGHTING CONTEST is a neighborhood event. Only illuminated outdoor decorations will be considered, and only residents in the area serviced by the Glorietta Improvement Association are eligible for prizes.

Prizes will be awarded for the most artistic and original decorations. To qualify for consideration, decorations should be up by next Wednesday.

Association directors are Phil Mittell, president; Flint, vice-president; Hyzer Jones, secretary; Jim Thomas-Stahle, treasurer; John McCosker, Bob Grant, Paul Williams and Merv Peacock.

The girls will enertain with Brownie songs and Christmas carols. Each mother will be presented with a decorated Christmas candle made by her daughter and refreshments will be served.

Troop 264

On November 11 members of Troop 264, Orinda Girl Scouts, went to Mt. Diablo to explore rocky caves and enjoy a picnic lunch at Rock City. A bike was taken from Pioneer Camp to Lookout Tower at the top of the mountain, and plants of the area were studied and discussed with a Ranger.

Girls making the trip were Terry Epperson, Cheryl Fager, Cheryl Libbey, Paulita Parrish, Mary Lynn Schralla and Lottie Thurston.

Mrs. George Thurston, Mrs. John Epperson and also younger brothers Jack and Peter Epperson and Anthony Thurston accompanied the girls.

Troop 43

Orinda Girl Scout Troop 43 recently enjoyed a conducted tour of San Francisco's Chinatown. A Chinese luncheon and an opportunity to shop in some of the native stores followed the tour. The girls were accompanied by their scout leader, Mrs. H. T. Jones, and mothers Mrs. Paul Winquist and Mrs. John Roffinella.

Collecting toys for children aided by the Contra Costa Welfare Board has been a Christmas project for the troop. The girls have also completed gifts for their parents.

A Christmas party will be held Monday at Mrs. Jones' homes. Mrs. Robert Miller, co-leader, will assist.

Yule Singing

Again this year, keeping a five year old tradition alive, the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce is presenting its annual Christmas Carol Festival.

The colorful program will be at the Acalanes High School Thursday, at 8 a. m. Admission is free. Plans are being made for attendance of more than 500. Due to the excellent facilities at Acalanes High School, parking will be no problem, said a spokesman.

Several church choirs from different faiths will sing the songs which are a part of the Christmas season. It is the cooperation of these local church choirs that make this Christmas Carol Festival possible, and the success it has been in the past, he said.

The support of many local merchants is appreciated, for they have made this financially possible, as their donations have offset the cost of the program, stated Tom Grey, chairman.

Should We Consolidate Local Fire Districts?

How far is your home from a fire house?

Do you know what number to call in case of fire?

If you do have a fire, does the fire engine come from the house that is actually closest to your home?

The answers to these questions, and to many more, all have a bearing on the larger question—should Contra Costa's fire districts be consolidated, at least in the central area?

We do not know the answer to this question, but we would certainly like to find out. The Board of Supervisors has indicated an interest in consolidation, but we don't think they really know the answers to all the necessary questions, either.

The answer is a thorough study, one which will ascertain the facts, and one which will probably answer the question beyond reasonable doubt.

There are apparent reasons for the consolidation of the districts. One prime advantage would appear to be the location of the actual fire houses.

UNDER THE PRESENT setup, many districts are building houses to take care of the extremities of their own district, and are actually neighbors to a fire house belonging to an adjacent district.

Under a consolidated program the placement of these fire houses could be worked out on a master plan basis, assuring possibly better coverage, and at a saving.

Another important factor would appear to be the rectification of confusion which now exists in some areas of our county. In the Saranap area residents are often confused as to whether they are served by the Lafayette Fire Department or the Central Fire District.

The same is true in certain areas in Pleasant Hill where confusion exists between Central and Mount Diablo Fire Districts.

Incidentally, all districts in the central area could be unified except the Lafayette Fire District, which was organized under a different act.

Lafayette recently turned down reorganization to a conforming county district, but for other reasons than possible consolidation.

A POSSIBLE example of consolidation can be found in the Los Angeles area, and it might be well for the Board of Supervisors to investigate the results in that area, to determine the feasibility of a similar move here.

A possible argument against consolidation is that it would remove a certain amount of local control. On the other hand, it may be more efficient and we may get better service.

We do not know the answers, but we think they should be ferreted out and presented to the public for inspection.

We urge the Board of Supervisors to make a study, and to report the answers.

And the time to start such a study is now.

MERCHANTS BEWARE!!

CHRISTMAS TIME provides a virtual paradise for both professional and amateur shoplifters. The Contra Costa Sheriff's Office has issued a warning to merchants to be on the look-out for sneak thieves who ply their trade during the crowded Christmas season. —Sun photo by Jim Guthrie.

Nikita Dear--The Earwigs Done Chewed up the Piece

By PAT PENDING

Well, anyway, we have the lowest satellite in the world! Our 6.4" aluminum sphere sent radio signals even after its carrier rocket blew up. The only catch: it sent them from the ground!

U. S. ROCKET experts should try the California Public Utilities system to successfully launch a miniature moon. The PG&E, The Pacific Telephone Co., and the water companies seem to have no difficulty getting their rates sky high!

I've got a secret, Comrades! And a confession to make. I HAD Sputnik I's carrier rocket that Nikita (bless his empty, pointed head) wants returned! It fell into my yard last Sunday morning with a tremendous crash. I paid no attention at first because I thought it was the disposal men tippy toe-ing around in the predawn collecting the neighborhood garbage and beer cans.

I can't send it back to Comrade Krushchev because my wife practically destroyed it. She pushed our lawn mower over it when cutting the grass in the back yard while I (gallantly) watched the Forty-Niners defeat the New York Giants.

And, the earwigs chewed up the pieces!

I ADVISE my readers to do their Christmas shopping early because all the choice Cadillacs, Ermine coats, and color TV sets will be gone if you wait until the very last minute!

Here are some helpful gift suggestions for Contra Costa taxpayers:

1. New color telephons for the D.A. and his assistants with extension cords running from the county offices to their respective homes.

2. Send a five dollar contribution to the Recorder's Retirement Supplementary Fund c/o the Grand Jury (this fund to be distributed by the D.A.)

3. A Geiger counter to the county Census Taker's office. (This is very useful in the counting of Geigers and there are several residing in Concord alone.)

4. Send a gasoline station to the county Planning Commission—they'll find a place to put it.

5. Send the PG&E your approval of their request to raise their current rates.

THERE'S A NEW windshield that not only wraps around—it folds back. If it folds back around your neck, you've had it! Safety plate glass isn't safe! Not if your head goes through it and your body fails to follow!

So take it easy during the coming holidays.

Cardinal Unit Plans Party, Dutch Auction

A cocktail party and dutch auction is being planned for members of the Cardinal Unit, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Gene Arena, Lafayette, from 4 to 6 p.m.

This will be the first social event for the members and their husbands, since the unit has just recently been formed.

A dutch auction will also take place, and keeping with the holiday season a lovely Christmas decoration will be given away.

Mrs. Gene Arena, party hostess, is representative at large of the Cardinal Unit and also a member of the council of representatives for the therapy center.

Plans are now being completed for the units membership tea to be given January 21.

Letters to The Editor

FROM CAMBODIA

Dear Editor:

How we do enjoy keeping up with all of our friends and getting the local news! We seem so very far from the world, no newspaper or radio contact with the world as we know it, so when The Sun comes, we all "fight" to read it first.

I am sure many of our friends have questioned our wisdom in going into Foreign Service, but these past four months have taught us that this service is the only thing that can check the progress of Red China into these lesser countries.

How badly they need economic help and technical advice rather than domination as only Red China can dominate! The Cambodians are a gentle, loving and happy people and we are enjoying all our contacts with them.

I did not plan to write a letter—only this note of "hello' frrom Cambodia. But don't let anyone "sell" this ICA program short who has not actually lived out here and seen the work being done. As we curtain our work here, Russia rushes in with money and aid, so if America is to really help these people it does take money, and we have found the men here very dedicated men.

Give our greetings to all who remember us, and write of the (Lafayette) Community Center, for we are so interested in hearing.

MRS. FRED KNOBEL

THANKS

Dear Editor:

It has recently been brought to my attention the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has approved a plan whereby disabled veterans will be given an opportunity for employment at the Sheriff's office as radio dispatchers.

On behalf of the American Legion Post $171 I wish to express our sincere appreciation to Mel Nielsen, Supervisor from Lafayette, who suggested this plan, and each member of the Board of Supervisors for taking this action.

The recognition of the fact there are in our County military veterans who have disabilities which would not impair their usefulness in certain types of employment, is most heartening to the membes of our organization.

LIKES PAPER

Dear Editor:

It has been my pleasure to buy a single copy of your very fine paper from time to time for several years, and read it with the satisfaction that I was receiving my money's worth.

When your issue of Firday, November 15 came into my hands, I immediately decided to be a regular subscriber. Enclosed is my check to pay for the first year's subscription.

In your paper we get some real news, and particularly that of local concern, from which the taxpavers could reap great benefits if they would wake up.

Your article on flood control was intelligent and factual, and if read, should create a wide interest in this fantastic undertaking.

San Ramon Valley should be a field for the circulation of your paper. Give them more about Zone 3B and detail of the money that has been spent on the dams—five on San Ramon Creek costing approximately $300,000 each, and the one on Pine Creek that cost about $600,000.

Where has this money gone. who is to receive the benefit and who pays the bill?

Do You Have Some Good Ideas for Family Fun?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

"Hello, boss, who are you going to needle this week?" asked Snoopy, the office cat.

Well, Snoopy, that's not very nice. I might criticize sometime but I never needle anyone. Look, here are some notes for my column—not a nasty thought among them.

"What's the matter, boss, aren't you feeling well? They don't call you 'Old Poison Pen' for nothing! Oh, I know, the holiday spirit is catching you."

Careful ow, Snop, or you'll be out of the office and on your tail. But if you're good, you can sit over there while I go to work on my weekly masterpiece. One word—and you are out.

A wonderful trip so near

Question: Have you driven over the new San Pablo Dam Road yet? It is a beautiful drive from Orinda to El Sobrante—the new county road is excellent. But the scenery is breath-taking. You could travel hundreds of miles to see such views—the rolling hills, trees and lakes. Take the family some Sunday. It's a very short trip.

We drove it last Sunday and then enjoyed the new Richmond-San Rafael bridge. But you don't have to go that far for family fun.

Have you considered a family fun party at the roller skating rink or ice rink in Walnut Creek?

Or for an exciting evening of sports, head out to the St. Mary's gym for some red, hot college basketball. Our high school basketball is darn good, too.

Climbing over hill and dale

There's some beautiful hill country with easy climbing in Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Alamo and Pleasant Hill. Or try some of the trails on Mt. Diablo.

How long has it been since you've driven to the top of Mt. Diablo? Take a picnic lunch? Camp out? Try it some time.

Horse back ride? There's a lot of wonderful country to see and several very good stables are available.

Oh, so you're not the rugged type! We're not either—so our family has fun going to the show occasionally. The kids consider it a big wing-ding.

Touring the county

Some months ago I wrote about our family's five-hour expedition to Martinez, Pittsburg, Antioch, Bethel Island, Brentwood and back. There's a lot to see in this county. Try it some day—when you can't garden or play golf. Winter is a good time for family excursions.

And if you get some good ideas, please let me know. I'll pass them on to others. Okay?

Oriole Meeting Has Yule Lunch

A luncheon treated with a touch of Christmas and the exchanging of gifts was held Wednesday at the December meeting of the Orinda Orioles of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

The festive and traditional gathering was held at the Bear Creek Road home of Mrs. William Sergeant, who has been active as the group's Gift Box chairman this year.

El Charro Listed By Duncan Hines

El Charro Restaurant, Lafayette, has received national recognition in the new 1958 edition of Duncan Hines' "Adventures in Good Eating," just off the press. It is among 3000 selected eating places in North America recommended by Duncan Hines.

According to the publisher, the Duncan Hines Institute, Ithaca, N. Y., this is the 50th printing for this 352-page travel guide book.

The Staff Corner

. . . The Christmas 'Suckers'

By BOB RAPIDA

If you are the average dollar-thrifty shopper, as most of us are, you will undoubtedly be one of the lucky many to get bilked this happy Christmas season.

"Wow, what a bargain," I thought to myself the other day when I picked up a hand bill for 100 giant toys for $1.

It was a bargain alright, they were blurred imprints on paper to be cut out and put together.

"Fly-by-night" mail order houses offer such handy items as "gorgeous dolls" which turn out to be shoddy rags or offer dolls, showing a picture of a pretty stuffed doll, which turn out to be paper paste ups.

That's right, it's the Christmas season and every two-bit crook is out on the street again trying to turn a dishonest dollar.

The general gimmicks that are used to bilk the public are as old as Christmas itself but, as the saying goes: "There's a sucker born every minute."

The Better Business Bureau, the Sheriff's office and the police departments are flooded with calls from mid-December to early January by people who bought in good faith and were cheated.

In reality, they got just what they paid for, JUNK.

Shoppers should be wary of "transients" who rent vacant stores to display flashy, but inferior, junk merchandise and will not be around after the presents are opened to make good on reckless claims and promises.

Watch out for "sidewalk-hawkers" who also get into the act. Before buying make sure they have a license to operate. If they don't call the authorities.

Ever see the fellow over in the business district with the huge balloon? Do you think the uninflated balloons in his sack are the same size as the one he is carrying?

Nine times out of ten, this type of "hawker" is really selling tiny balloons rather than the great big one he is carrying. By the way, he isn't breaking the law in a sense, since you are the one who thinks the ones in the bag are as large as the one he is carrying.

Upon inspection the perfume actually turns out to be toilet water labeled with a fake comparative price sold for approximately 50 cents in variety stores.

Perfume is another item that sells like hotcakes. What husband would refuse a deal in a bar for a bottle of real imported type stuff which should sell for $25 but as a Christmas special, is only $2.50 to get rid of surplus stocks?

Investigate discount bargains. Many are based on fake list prices and are NOT bargains.

It is economically impossible for a firm to maintain a policy of selling retail at wholesale prices.

"Discounts in this sense mean nothing more than a price cut, and price cuts are offered every day by legitimate local retailers," warns the Better Business Bureau.

If you want to get your money's worth, give nice presents, not junk, and avoid a call to the local law enforcement agency, do the smart thing!

Trade only with firms known to be reliable and if you don't know the merchandise—know your merchant.

You know your local merchant since he lives in your community. Give yourself a break this Christmas season, shop at home and don't get bilked!

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

Each year one wonders how "Towhee Tinsel Time" could possibly be any nicer—but each year it is. Tuesday a group of us lunched at the Elks Club and then went on out to Diablo Country Club which was alive with holiday sparkle. The Christmas Tree and Table Setting displays which lined the Ballroom were surveyed with much enthusiasm for they were truly original and lovely.

Voting was a difficult job. In the center of the huge room were the bazaar tables—and novelties of all kinds, sizes and shapes were going like the proverbial "hot cakes." The three tea tables, which had been planned by Alice Cashin, were a sight to behold—each different from the other.

The one drawing most of the "ohs and ahs" was the gold table. A huge three tiered arrangement was flanked by equally huge tea and coffee service arrangements, all entirely of gold. One group, which lunched first at the Villa San Ramon, was composed of the Mesdames A. N. Warburton (who looked stunning as she, an honoured guest, poured coffee), Jim Frank, Warren Ganison, W. H. Gritzer, Paul Kapei, Sherm Sibley, W. C. Hall, Ralph Ligon, Marilyn Kinney, Robert Stevens and Mrs. Houston Smith (who is Marge Warburton's sister from San Mateo—and what a beauty!

She wore black—and had on the MOST sophisticated, snug-fitting cloche. Spotted, too, were Mrs. W. N. Tomlinson, Mrs. George Nodder, and Mrs. Richard Fulgham in a grey flannel outfit topped with OH! such a luscious grey fox stole.

Complete with suckling pig, yet!

Louise and Howard Burk were hosts at a Christmas party given for employees who had been with the Walnut Creek Sheet Metal Company for more than 10 years. About 70 guests gathered at the "Zombie Village" in Oakland where they enjoyed a typical Luau—suckling pig and all. Louise's mother, Mrs. Lou Very, was wearing a most unusual embroidered beige sheath with a shawl collar.

Special guests were the Richard Olsens (Lorraine in a black ribbon knit), the Hal Wards, the Lew Carstens, the Ralph Sieglers, the E. H. Beckys and the Richard Grants.

DINING AND DANCING (to the music of Dick Foy's band) the other night at the Orinda Country Club was a group of old friends who always have such fun together. They were the Walter Boysens, Aubrey Sweets, R. A. Starks, Taylor Robinsons, Joe Langs, Clare Fischells, Henry Breckenridge Clays, and the F. J. Federighis.

That last name brings to light a little bit of news which I consider a little bit of heaven. The Federighis and their sons Douglas and Mike and Aub and Thelma Sweet and their son, Jim, will be flying to Florida where they will board the Federighi's beautiful cabin cruiser. For two weeks they will roam the sky blue waters—Christmas in white sharkskin shorts! How heavenly!

After the other "poor souls" have returned to this every day world, Mr. and Mrs. Federighi will stay on until the end of February—when they, too, will return. But that shouldn't be much of a let down—for they just happen to have a cruiser here too!

Simone Linares from Los Angeles has been visiting Juanita and Charles Benoy in Alamo. Among other things—they "did" San Francisco and saw "Around the World in Eighty Days." Mrs. Benoy is in Chicago now attending a conference for rehabilitation center directors. Headquarters are at the Morrison Hotel there.

OF COURSE, SHE IS representing the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center—one of the few California centers included. In all, there are 83 rehabilitation centers represented.

The purpose of the conference is for operation planning and policy making and Mrs. Benoy always returns with a wealth of information, an abundance of enthusiasm—and a two fold realization of how proud all of us should be of our very own center.

A family dinner party was held at the home of G. Austin and Lucille Shepherd recently. Lucille's adorable mother, Mrs. Charles McClaren, was there as were the W. C. McLarens.

A tea, but without suckling pig

Last week, Kay (Mrs. Edward) Wanous gave a tea for a former neighbor, Sue Dyer, who now lives in Los Angeles. Sue and her little boy, Roger, are here visiting all of their old friends. Among guests gathering in the warm atmosphere of Kay's lovely home were the Mesdames Marvin Courter, Harmon Howard, Sanford Marlor, Ralph Martin, and Robert Moore.

SENIOR CITIZENS of Lafayette will hold their Christmas party at the Veterans Memorial Building, Lafayette, next Thursday, from 1 to 4 p.m. Decorating the Christmas tree for the affair are, left to right, Mrs. Clara M. Munson, in charge of program arrangements; Mrs. May Duncan, president of the Senior Citizens of Lafayette; Mrs. Frank Reas, in charge of refreshments; Antone Van Pelt, general chairman for the affair, and Miss Isabel Smith, in charge of decorations. This tree was loaned by Johnny and Olga Vuich of the Potato Sack Market.—Sun photo by Mattson.

The Frank Dutras invited about 24 of their closest friends for their annual Christmas party yesterday. Guests will arrive in the evening at the Dutra ranch on Bear Creek Road, Orinda. A buffet dinner will be served—Mrs. Dutra laughingly remarked that they always serve turkey—but due to their being in the cattle raising business—they dare not forget the roast beef. (I agree!)

Last Sunday Peggy (Mrs. Ralph) Ong honored a charming young lady, Miss Joan Jochums from Berkeley, with a large tea at the Ong home on Los Palos Drive in Lafayette. Joan and Dick Ong will become young Mr. and Mrs. Ong at the end of December.

PEGGY, JOAN AND JOAN'S MOTHER greeted the guests, all wearing heavenly shades of blue. The lovely bride-to-be wore a tiarra of fresh flowers in her hair. Just wish I could describe, adequately, how gay and gorgeous the house looked.

Each of the bedrooms glowed in candlelight and was decorated with berries and gaily wrapped packages. In one of the boy's rooms—a deer's head was topped with a perkly chappeau made of red ornaments and each horn was tipped with same.

Now, into the living room we go—and there, as in a Fairyland, the whole color scheme is in pink—with the MOST delicate tree of pink with white frosting. Pink frosted candles, pink carnations—and more PINK! Follow me into the large family room where the long tea table is covered with voluminous red tule, caught up at intervals with white carnations—which also are heaped artistically as a centerpiece.

And to continue the tour . . .

All around the room—groupings of red and white carnations. Even the fireplace had its day—filled to overflowing with bright red berries. And, Oh! such delicacies. The best canapes—and the prettiest little cakes—iced in white and topped with bells of green and red.

Ruth Edwards was something to see as she mingled with the guests—making sure that everyone had been introduced. Her slim kelly green dress had a low, low square cut back. Just stunning. Zelda Gorman looked regal in a black velvet suit and hat. Barbara Parshall was wearing warm brown with accents of tangerine and and a side-swept satin hat in the same hue.

Irene Taylor was THE "chic-est" in an electric blue, draped crepe

Yes, a LOVELY party!

Hundreds Awed by Trees At Towhee Tinsel Tea

Over 1000 women felt the sparkle of Christmas from the time they heard the carols being played in the lobby of the Mt. Diablo Country Club December 3 at the 6th annual exhibit tea and bazaar presented by the Towhee Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Attractive hostesses president Mrs. Robert Wisecarver and exhibit chairman Mrs. Wm. J. McGuire greeted guests at the door looking festive in their party dresses covered by red organdy aprons with red carnations adorning their hair.

Tea chairman Mrs. Samuel Bradford helped usher them toward the lovely exhibits which had already been judged by mesdames Rolland Brown, Alma Blakesley and Chauncey Pond of Lafayette.

WINNING TREE WAS a lovely evergreen prepared by Mesdames Edward Larmer and Fred Confer of the Therapy Linnet unit, decorated with imported ornaments and displayed on a Swedish hand blocked cloth. The Valley Art Center won the sweepstakes prize for table settings with an unusual Mexican motif table decorated with a mosaic angel, and hand created mosaic candle stick holders by Mrs. Richard Ward and Peter Howard.

The guests cast ballots as they viewed the 28 lovely trees and settings and the Orioles Therapy Unit tree won the popular vote. This was an exquisite bejeweled cone tree done by Mrs. James Chapple. Seabury Club of Walnut Creek won the popular award for table settings with an all wedgewood blue and white creation prepared by Mrs. G. T. Harter.

Honorable mention was given to a quaint yarn and puppet tree prepared by Mrs. E. J. Molloy of Laurel Jr. Branch of Children's Hospital and to Jr. Museum Alliance for a lovely children's table setting featuring miniature felt animals done by Mrs. Alex Lindsay.

Three banquet sized tea tables laden with the warm traditional sauce awaited the throngs at the far end of the ballroom, the first done in deep forest green, centered with a sculptured iron reindeer sporting lighted candles as antlers and jeweled reins.

A RED CLOTH and white accents adorned the second table, dominated by a white doilee tree, and the center table was a masterpiece of white linen and gold accents carried out by a brass candelabra and tiered centerpiece filled with gold sprayed pineapple, pomegranates and gourds and huge brass samovars at each end of the table, all of this artistry prepared by Mesdames Frank Cashin and Charles Rodier.

Pouring at these lovely tables during the afternoon were honored guests Mesdames Arch J. Campbell, E. R. Rippingham, James Simonds, Alfred Marchetti, A. R. Bliesner and the following Therapy unit presidents, Mesdames A. H. Thompson, James Seaman, C. Wadsworth White, A. N. Warburton, L. Robert Martin, F. E. Forsburg, Edward Lazzareschi. Jack Kennedy, Howard Burk, Wm. H. Evans, Theron Prentiss Jrs., and Herbert Phillips.

Other Towhees playing key roles in the successful affair were Mrs. William Phelan Jr., ticket chairman, Mrs. William McLaren, bazaar chairman, Mrs. Edward E. Wanous, puddings chairman, Mesdames Robert Cuenin and Donald Priewe club decorations, Mrs. Ferris Fain, prizes; Mrs. Robert Leland, sewing, and Mrs. Alan Scott, serving.

Orinda Women's Yule Party Set For Tomorrow

The Orinda Woman's Club will gather for its annual Christmas Party at the Howard J. Libbys' Sleepy Hollow home tomorrow from 6 to 8 p.m.

Holiday berries, a gold tree, sparkling glasses and stark white linen will set the stage for the club's cocktail party.

Mrs. James Byers, social chairman, is being assisted by her committee, which will aid the hostess and will help provide food, potables and name tags for the party.

Assisting with the preparations will be the Mesdames Norman Brooks, Richard Bottjer, James Byers, Richard J. Funk, Howard B. Hoyt, William Leonard, E. F. Nielsen, James Stockholm, William Van Voorhies, Edward Winthers and George Young.

Name tags will be made by Mesdames Richard Bottjer, Filson Dorland, Ernest Haynes and Robert Voegtly.

Hospital Group Plans Dance

Employees of Kaiser Hospital and Permanente Medical Group in the eastern county will hold a Christmas dance tonight at 9 in the Diablo Country Club.

About 350 employees and guests will attend, according to Mrs. Jane Cochrane of Walnut Creek, general chairman. Henry Gallagher's orchestra will pay.

A THANKSGIVING gathering served as a welcome opportunity to announce the engagement of Faye Dair and Edgar Alley Sayre III. The bride-to-be is an Acalanes High School graduate. Wedding plans are indefinite.

Patricia Funk Married In St. Paul's Church

Schools will be important in the lives of the new Mr. and Mrs. Warner Wandry, who were married November 27 in the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek.

The bride is the former Patricia Funk of Pleasant Hill. She graduated with distinction from San Jose State College tlhis year, and has begun teaching at Gregory Gardens School, Pleasant Hill.

Her husband will enter the University of California, Berkeley, in February, and complete his education already begun at San Jose State College. He has been employed by a chemical company in Antioch.

The wedding ceremonies were performed by Rev. Wilfred Hodgkin.

Barbara Eschmann of Concord was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Ginger Funk, Mrs. Noreen Fields, sisters of Patricia and Paula Ostlund of Pittsburg.

Karl Wandry, brother of the groom, was best man.

Patricia wore satin and lace gown and the bridesmaids champagne color gowns.

A reception at the Walnut Creek Women's Club was attended by about 250 friends and relatives.

She graduated from Mt. Diablo High School in 1953, and attended East Contra Costa Junior College before the awarding of a scholarship led to her enrollment in San Jose State College.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Funk of 203 Roberta Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

Mr. Wandry served for three years in the U. S. Air Force. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wandry of Antioch.

The newlyweds will make their home on Bonafacio Street, Concord.

Improvers Balk Track Removal On Bay Bridge

The Claremont and Kensington Improvement Clubs, both of the Oakland area, have asked the State Public Utilities Commission to reverse its decision permitting Key System to substitute buses for trains on the Bay Bridge.

In the petition, the clubs claim motor coach service would be markedly inferior to the present service. They also stated that a premature destruction of rails on the bridge could interfere with the plans of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District and the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

The replacement of trains with buses was authorized by the PUC March 12. The switch over date is Wednesday but could be postponed by the PUC.

Drunk Drivers May Expect 'Special Attention': CHP

Drinking drivers will receive special attention during the December holidays, according to plans developed by the California Highway Patrol and the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell and ABC Director Russell S. Munro agreed to the two-pronged attack on the drinking driver problem and promised professional enforcement action against all violators.

"OUR COOPERATIVE enforcement efforts have brought favorable results in the past," stated Munro. "Our agents will again work closely with the Patrol in a concentrated program designed to control the excessive drinking situation on and off the highways."

"We are asking all military and local police agencies to join us in this effort during the holidays and look forward to a broader and more effective program," Caldwell said. "An extensive public information program is also planned which we hope will reach every user of our streets and highways between now and Christmas eve."

In 1956 20.8 per cent of all reportable traffic accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

During 1956, members of the Patrol arrested 11,869 drivers who were under the influence of alcohol. This is an average of 989 per month. (About 33 per day.) Increase of 7.5 per cent compared to 1955.

Nine hundred and twenty five persons were killed in traffic accidents during 1956 in which one or more drivers had been drinking. This is an increase of 21.9 per cent compared to the 759 victims in 1955.

One hundred six or 11.5 per cent of last year's "had been drinking" victims were killed in December.

Clinic Open Next Friday

"Now is the time for everyone under forty years of age to be immunized against polio", Dr. Elvira Goettsch, Assistant Health Officer, said when announcing the date of the next Health Department immunization clinic for the Pleasant Hill area.

Dr. Goettsch pointed out that immunizations are best obtained from one's own physician. Health Department clinics are maintained to serve those who would have difficulty in obtaining these services privately.

The Health Department clinic will be held at the Community Baptist Church, 924 Pleasant Hill Road, from 2 to 5 p.m. next Friday.

In addition to polio vaccinations, immunizations for diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and smallpox will also be made available to children.

Children 13 and under must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, and those 14 to 21 must have the signed consent of their parent or guardian.

Thanks... This Bouquet Makes Us Feel Real Good

(Editor's note: We're on the receiving end of so many brickbat-tosses that it really makes us glow when The Sun receives bouquets. So we couldn't resist giving prominence to the following letter.)

Dear Editor:

Cogratulations on winning first place in the nation for newspaper promotion and community relations. I realized a long time ago that The Sun was one of the most outstanding weeklies.

Even when I would not have time to read every issue in the past, I continued my subscription because of its excellent editorials.

I know that the only way to boost any local organization is to get behind it and do what we can, especially anything as worthwhile as The Sun. It is a community necessity to have such an outstanding publication as The Sun, as well as a privilege.

Here's good luck for the future, and keep up the good work. Here's my check for another year.

Sirens to Shriek Next Friday in 'Test' Alert

An "audible" test of sirens will be conducted next Friday at 11 a.m. by the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense, Acting Director Ralph Holmes has announced.

Residents of the area will take no action during the test, other than to note the audibility of the sirens, and to mail the results of their own "investigations" to the county office at 2130 Arnold Highway, Martinez.

The test was requested by Federal Civil Defense Administration, which contributes funds through the Matching Fund Program for the installation of public warning equipment.

NEXT FRIDAY was suggested by the California Disaster office.

Seventeen sirens have been instaled by the County CD Office within the unincorporated portions of the evacuation area of the County.

Linked with these 17 sirens are seven attack warning sirens at the fire stations of Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Danville, Concord, and Rodeo—making a total of 24 sirens in the County CD Attack Warning System.

Sirens will sound the "Take Cover" signal — 3 minutes of the undulating, wailing, warbling, up-and-down tone.

INDIVIDUAL personal contacts will be made by members of the County CD Staff on people living in areas of sure, probable and questionable siren coverage of the County owned sirens, asking them to cooperate by listening for the siren and fill out a card supplied by the County Office as to the coverage.

Holmes said, "We wish to emphasize that this will be a test only.

"No action is requested of the general public except to listen and report, and we have forms for the report for those who voluntarily care to assist.

"Persons without forms should write in their names and addresses, where they were at the time of the sirens, if they heard the sirens, if they heard it well, fairly well or only dimly, and whether they were inside or outdoors.

"If inside, they should state turned on - such as radios, television sets or vacuum cleaners", Holmes said.

Red-Berried Pyracanthas Brighten Winter Gardens

By THE GARDENER

THIS IS THE MONTH that many proud home owners corner their visitors and hustle them off to the garden to admire the heavy crop of berries on the arching branches of their pyracantha shrubs.

Envious visitors; however, need not lose heart, for they can still select lovely evergreen pyracantha specimens to brighten their own gardens this winter.

The California Association of Nurserymen notes that this is excellent transplanting time and that local nurseries carry a wide selection of fine shrubs from this family, some already bright with berries.

IN ADDITION to lush, bright-colored berries, pyracanthas, which are often call by the common name of Firethorn, have much to recommend them as all year assets to your garden. Pretty sprays of white blossoms adorn the evergreen shrubs in spring and the compact green foliage is an all year attraction.

Although one of the pyracantha's best uses is espaliered against a fence or on a trellis, lower growing varieties make fine, practical ground covers. Local nurserymen are always glad to show home owners how to take advantage of the natural tendencies of individual varieties to get desired landscaping effects.

Because of its steadily increasing popularity in California, the pyracantha family is being improved by the development of new named varieties.

MORE THAN 15 varieties, largely developed from two main species, are available in quantity in local nurseries throughout California. Pyracanthas have long been among the best selling berried shrubs in this state.

One very hardy species of pyracantha is Du Valii. Du Valii has a spreading growth habit and reaches 10 feet in height unless pruned. Like many other pyracanthas, this variety may be espaliered against a wall or trellis.

A spreading habit characterizes the crenato-serrato species. These useful shrubs seldom reach more than 6 feet, but they spread to about 10 feet in width. The berries of this species are borne for a particularly long time and range from coral to orange in hue.

VARIATION Santa Cruz may easily be kept to one and one-half feet in height with a spread of about 6 feet. Santa Cruz bears large red berries from October to February. One variety of the crenato-serrato species, the graberi, has an upright growth habit and is easily adopted to espaliering.

Other favorite pyracanthas, not descended directly from a major species, include the Rosedale, Victory and San Jose.

The Rosedale variety has extremely bright red berries borne densely on dark, rich green foliage. Rosedale's spring flowers are especially attractive.

Victory has held popularity because it is a strong growing and long bearing shrub.

San Jose produces large scarlet berries and is very wide spreading.

ALTHOUGH THEIR pleasing appearance is the basic cause of pyracanthas' popularity, gardeners who sing the praise of these useful evergreen always note in addition how easily they can be cared for.

Pyracanthas should be planted in full sun to insure a heavy crop of berries, but they are not particular about the soil they live live in and can take considerable neglect.

They should not be permitted to dry out while bearing a crop of berries for the crop will shrivel and drop off prematurely.

Berkeley Builder Sues Contra Costa Plan Commission

Suit has been filed in Martinez to test the right of Contra Costa County to require subdivision maps be filed and owners to obtain permits for building more that one house on a single lot by a Berkeley resident.

E. E. Burgess, 155 Forest Lane, owner of property including a service station and five residences in El Sobrante, asks an alternative writ of mandate forcing the county to issue the permits or appear in Superior Court and show cause why it has not done so.

BURGESS ASSERTS he has sold three of the residences but received only two permits. He charges the county has refused to issue the third permit until he files a subdivision map. He alleges compliance would cost him $3500 and that he faces loss of $15,000 if the permit is not issued.

The suit names as defendants the county and County Planning Commission.

H. R. Griffith said the county requires a land use permit if more than one house is built on a single lot, regardless of its acreage, or if an attempt is made to divide such a parcel into two lots.

GRIFFITH SAID BURGESS' property could be divided to conform with zoning regulations but that if he seeks a land use permit he would be required to file a subdivision map because of the number of residences.

Burgess maintains in his suit that the county's map act does not apply to his development because he has divided his property into fewer than five parcels and plans no further divisions.

YMCA Dads Offer Trees

Christmas trees will be sold by the East Contra Costa YMCA in Lafayette and Pleasant Hill to finance YMCA programs, according to John Price, secretary.

The locations are at Dewing Lane and Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette, and at the Pleasant Oaks Shopping Center, Oak Park and Patterson, in Pleasant Hill.

The tree sales will continue through December 22.

The trees will be Douglas, White Fir, Silver Tips from the Tahoe National Forest. Fathers and sons will "man" the lots.

Capwell's Now Offers Decorating Service

Capwell's Walnut Creek department store has just initiated a new Home Decorating service that should prove popular with Valley home-makers.

Working under the belief that everyone would like some professional advice on the ways and means to beautify the interior of their home, Capwell's has appointed Mrs. Barbara Malie's Home Decorating Consultant.

MRS. MALIES

Mrs. Malies will devote all of her time to the particular decorating problems and interests of each customer. She will individually consult with customers in order to decide on the best solution to any problems they may have concerning color coordination, drapery, floor fabrics, or decorating schemes, and will answer all questions on the right items for the home's interior decor.

CAPWELL'S FEEL that they are very fortunate in having Mrs. Malies available for advice. She is experienced in the Home Decorating field, having been in the decorating business since 1937. She received her early training at the University of California, and was in business with her husband in Danville from 1949 to 1954.

In March of 1956 she came to Capwell's-Walnut Creek where she worked in Home Furnishings. At the present time Mrs. Malies and her family live in Danville.

Mrs. Malies has her office located in the Maple Dept. where she is ready to discuss indviidual furniture requirements and offer decorating suggestions that combine comfort and attractiveness. However, she is on call at all times and is available for consultation and advice in any other department that has to do with Home Decorating.

Council Gives 30 Camperships To Girl Scouts

During the summer of 1957 the camp committees of the Diablo Valley Girl Scout Council awarded a total of 30 camperships to the Diablo Valley Girl Scout camps. Sierra Woodlands and Twin Canyon.

Donations toward the campership fund were made by local organizations to assist girls who might not otherwise be able to attend the day camp sessions at Twin Canyon or the twoweek sessions at the Sierra Woodlands Camp in the Tahoe National Forest. This was in addition to the cookie camperships awarded for Sierra Woodlands.

Local organizations which contributed to the campership fund were: Women's Club of Walnut Creek, Crestview Women's Club, Parkmead PTA, Acalanes Improvement Association, Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club, Rotary Club of Walnut Creek, Vallecito Parent - Teachers Association, Danville Junior Women's Club, Pleasant Hill Chamber of Commerce, Walnut Creek Business and Professional Women's Club, Walnut Creek Kiwanis Club, Diablo Vista Parents Club.

Also Mrs. W. H. Zepp and Mrs. June Hoskins contributed.

"There is a definite need for funds for this purpose, as the expenses of the Girl Scout camp program must come from cookie and calendar sales, since United Crusade funds are for council operating expenses only, council officials state.

Jamboree Is Tonight

Six Squad Preview Slated for Orinda; Knights Get Nod

Tops on the hoop schedule for the local fives is the Miramonte Basketball Jamboree which takes place at the Miramonte High Gym tonight and tomorrow.

John Swett of Crockett, San Ramon High of Danville, Las Lomas of Walnut Creek, Acalanes of Lafayette, Piedmont and host Miramonte constitute the six clubs taking part.

THE TOURNAMENT is under the direction of Miramonte head coach Bob Callan, who predicts overflow crowds for the two nights of play, particularly in view of the fact that the best rooting section will bring home a trophy.

Calan explains that each team will meet every other team in the two nights of play. Games will be of 20 minute duration and team scores will determine the winner by a plus and minus scoring system.

For example, Team A beats Team B 36-30. Team A gets plus six and team B a minus 6. On this basis all games are tallied and the one coming up with the biggest plus total wins.

Awards will be given the winners and the runner up as well as individual trophies for the top five selected on an all-star basis.

THIS TYPE of tournament is known as the Acker play and has been most succesful in the Chico area.

In event the affair is successful it is planned as an annual deal and will serve as a preview of the clubs in early season and preleague play.

PLEASANT HILL draws a bye tonight but goes into action Tuesday when they travel to Martinez for varsity and Bee games.

The Bees will open with a 3:30 tip off.

Thursday the Pleasant Hill Rams play Balboa of San Francisco at Pleasant Hill with the Bees, Jayvees and Varsity going into action in that order.

THE GAMES will mark the close of the Ram season until after the Christmas holidays.

Las Lomas plays Wednesday following the Jamboree and close out their 1957 practice season when they play San Ramon in Walnut Creek. The bees open as 7 with the varsity game after.

Miramonte plays the Cal 145's Wednesday in a 7:30 game at the Orinda gym while the Matador Bees play John Swett (Crockett) Bees in a "prelim" tussle.

Acalanes winds up it December practice games when they play Albany at Albany with the Bees opening at 3:30.

Las Lomas Cagers Remain Undefeated in Hoop Play

Coach Merrill Callow and his Las Lomas quint rolled to another pair of wins Tuesday afternoon when they dropped Amador 51-47 in varsity play and 43-36 in the Bee tussle.

Forward Art Dalby proved to be the big gun once again for the Las Lomas varsity when he hit for an even 18 for game honors on seven field goals and four free throws.

HE GOT 10 of the points in the third quarter when the Knights bagged a grand total of 17 and that spelled the difference in the game.

Both clubs were as cold as the weather in the opening quarter when the Knights trailed 6-5 only to knot the count 20-20 at the half.

In the fatal third period Las Lomas outscored the visitors 17-9 and that was it although Amador did strike back in the fourth stanza with 18 points in an outburst.

The knights netted 14.

GUARD STEVE MOORE once again turned in a good all around game as did Dalby. Moor collected 10 points while Dalby grabbed 17 rebounds in addition to his 18 points.

Amador presented three fine scoring players of their own in forward Bill Nevel and Bob Bernard who along with guard Hal Shenks collected 14 points apiece.

The Knights have been the only local club to win with any consistency and will be the only undefeated club going into the miramonte tournament tonight.

Carlene Whitaker Breaks 200 Mark In Keg Circuit

Carlene Whitaker rolled a 209 game in the Tuesday Night Women's Handicap League at the Monument Bowl becoming the first keggler to break the 200 mark in this winter league.

Her team, Farr's TV, also had a big night with a four point victory over Martin Brothers. Union Ice Delivery and Kay's Coffee Shop scored three point wins over Yellow Cab and Stone's Men's Wear to remain in a second place tie.

The Monument Catering Girls dropped three to Woodside Builders lowering their margain for top spot to two points.

Next week will tell the tale as to who the champs will be when the first half of the winter season comes to an end.

Bety Love of Stone's rolled a 497 series with games of 153, 169 and 175.

Earlier Marie Grant of Yellow Cab pushed through a 457 series with a 114 average.

F&G Commission Slates Meetings

The January 2 meeting will be a regular meeting and will begin at 1:30 p.m. The Commission meets at 9 a.m. the following day to receive recommendations for 1958 angling regulations.

Eagles Fly as Dons Flounder On Hardwood

The Harry Ells High School Eagles flew too high for the Acalanes Dons last Tuesday afternoon when they copped a pair of games from the Dons.

The Eagle varsity opened with a 37-31 win while in the Bee and Don Babe test the Dons took the short end of a 37-32 count.

In the varsity game the Dons played far from the game they showed earlier against the Cal 145's and made too many miscues particularly on offense when they failed to move the ball with any consistency.

BIG JOHN PHAIR, veteran center, made his debut after having been sidelined with illness in the opening contests.

Phair did supply a scoring punch as he took individual game scoring honors with a respectable 13 points on four field goals and five free throws but received little help as the next highest for the Dons was Dave Bojarsky with five points on one field goal and three free throws.

Forward Gary Randall topped the winners with 11 on five field goals an one free throw.

THE DONS trailed 22-10 at the half after being behind 8-5 at the quarter. The Dons were consistant for three quarters as they scored five points in each period. They finally broke loose with 16 points in the final period of play paced by Phair who collected six but the clock ran its course with the Dons trailing 37-31.

The Bee game was really closer than the final 37-31 score indicated.

It was close down to the final as Acalanes trailed 14-13 at the half and with three minutes on the clock it was Ells 30-28.

Harry Ells hit a pair of field goals in the closing minutes plus a pair of free throws to go out in front to stay.

TOP SCORER was Harry Ells guard Ralph Hayes with 15 on six field goals and three free throws.

Tops for the Dons was Don Lippert with 14 on six field goals and three free throws.

Lunquist Clicks On Sparta Quint

Towering Arney Lundquist, 6' 7", 225 pound center-forward, formerly Las Lomas High scoring ace, has almost assured himself a starting forward position on the San Jose State basketball team. The Spartans are picked by the sportswriters to battle USF for the West Coast Athletic Conference crown this year.

Lunquist played freshmen ball for the Spartababes, and last year he led the SJS JV's to a successful season. Spartan Coach Walt McPherson stated "what a tremendous improvement Lundquist has made over the summer, and I'd sure like to have him on on the boards."

The Spartans have eight letter winners back from last year, of which four of them were regulars.

San Jose State opened their season with San Francisco State December 3. SJS begins league play January 4 against the University of San Francisco Dons.

Gaels Bow Again: UC Bears 60-57

St. Mary's College hoopsters take to the road this week after a 60-57 dumping by the Bears of California in probably one of the most exciting games played on the floor of the Cal Gym.

In a double overtime session the Gael's fell apart and gave the nod to Cal. Top scoring honors went to Cal's Dale Robinson who netted 20.

On the road, the Gaels will try and nab their first victory in encounters with Dayton, Evansville, Indiana, Washington of St. Louis or Brandley at Peoria.

The Gaels will return January 4 and tip off versus COP at Stockton. First home game will be San Jose January 7.

Citizen Difficulty Reaching County Heads Disclosed

Citizens' complaints concerning difficulty in reaching many of the county's department heads during working hours were aired before the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday in Martinez.

Particular notice was made by D. M. Teeter, county administrator, that of most the complaints pointed out it was difficult to reach department heads on Friday afternoons.

The county administrator said "We are under contract to deliver not less than 40 hours of our time at work each week."

"When a busy citizen calls during working hours," Teeter said, "and finds the employee he wants to reach is not available and receives no explanation of why he is not, he feels, justifiably, as you would feel if you had an employee absent without leave."

"I am confident that only a very few department heads need feel that the finger is pointed at them," he continued.

"I have always felt that this kind of a bulletin would not be necessary for me to issue, but when complaints begin to come from the citizenry who are our employers, I feel that I have no choice," Teeter stated.

Tamalpais Dishes Matadors Double Licking in Marin

The Miramonte Matadors travelled to Tamalpais High over Marin County way last Friday night and came out on the losing end in both the bee and varsity games.

In the Bee game, Tam won going away 42-22 but found things a bit tougher in the varsity event when the Matadors made it close all the way ending up on the short end of a 35-39 count.

THE CHANGING POINT came late in the third quarter when hustling forward Bill Houston went out on too many personals. Even without playing the final quarter he took scoring honors with 13 points on six field goals and one free throw.

Miramonte went out in front 11-5 in the first quarter thanks to the sharp shooting by Houston and Randy Young but the margin narrowed to 17-15 at the half.

In the third quarter each club scored 13 points and the two point edge remained with Miramonte out in front 30-28 thanks largely to Houston's nine point output in the third canto.

At this point Houston left via the personal foul route and the tables turned when Miramonte lost the final quarter 11-5 and with the quarter went the game.

MIRAMONTE SCORED 12 field goals and made good on 11 free throws for its 35 while Tam hit 39 on a "lucky 13" field goals and a like number of charity tosses.

In the free throw department Miramonte hit on 11 of 14 for 78 percent while Tam had 61 percent on 13 for 31.

Cal's Cubs Dump Acalanes 29-25

The Acalanes Dons traveled to Berkeley last Friday afternoon to play the Cal 145's and it was a tight defensive game all the way with the University five finally winning out 29-25.

It was 27-25 with seconds on the clock when the Dons fouled in a desperate attempt to get the ball and UC made good on a pair of free throws.

IT WAS REALLY a case of tight defensive play in the first quarter. Cal took an 8-2 first quarter lead. The Dons held the home club down in the second quarter as they scored a lone field goal for two points.

The dons, however, did little better on the offense collecting but four points on a field goal by Dave Bojarsky plus a pair of free throws, one by Mike Kritscher and another by Dwaine Stults.

In the third quarter the Dons closed the gap when they scored 11 points to Cal's nine bringing the contest to Cal 19-Dons 17.

The final quarter was nip and tuck down to the final gun. The Dons knotted the count 21-21 then fell behind and never did catch up again.

TOP SCORER for the winners was Mike White, former Acalanes seven points on three field goals and one free throw from this forward position.

Individual game scoring honors went to Acalanes Forward Dwaine Stults who bagged eight on two field goals and four free throws.

Red Devils Knocked By Encinal Hoopsters

Other games played Tuesday found Diablo dropping a 40-39 decision to Encinal of Alameda.

Antioch rolled over John Swett of Crockett 52-20 while Piedmont edged San Ramon 42-41. Berkeley racked Albany 62-41.

Miramonte Scores First With Basketball Jamboree

By ERWIN MATTSON

Coach Bob Callan and Miramonte High are to be congratulated on their Basketball Jamboree.

It's a new type of tournament for the area and could prove to be popular as it will give fans an insight as to how the various clubs stack up.

THE TOURNAMENT is patterned after one established by Art Acker, head of the physical education department of Chico State College, back in 1944.

Each team in the Jamboree plays every other team with composite scores deciding the winner—thus the winner is not known until the last whistle is blown.

The net score is decided by subtracting the points scored against a team in the two nights of play from the points scored by the team.

Five teams are in the tournament, besides host Miramonte, San Ramon, Las Lomas, Acalanes, Piedmont and John Swett.

Pre-play favorite is Las Lomas who appears to have a good club —the best of the lot in early season play.

Coach Merrill Callow has a good top five that could well take home the top trophy.

ACE OF THE Las Lomas Knights attack is Art Dalby, who is a top scorer as well as an excellent rebound man. Callow has built well the past years and has a good all around squad and in fact the only undefeated one in the tournament.

Opening games both tonight and tomorrow night start at 7. All teams will be seen in action both nights.

Basketball is a popular game due to its continuous action plus great skill involved. It is also a very unpredictable game as some nights the hoop seems to have a cover on it while in another game a club can hit "standing on their heads."

Who'll be champ?

The big question mark as always is who will win the league. The favorites are Mt. Diablo and Pittsburg with Las Lomas as a strong third which could go all the way.

Tab Pitt as the winner. Mt. Diablo will play a little better floor game and a better organized defense but Pitt has that winning ability to hit the hoop for those all important points.

Year after year they hit for astounding percentages, often 60 percent or better.

Pitt will make more mistakes and still win more games than any other club in the league.

Couple native ability with desire and you have a winner.

Real problems . . .

One of the problems of hoop coaching is to establish a pattern of play and to keep the players from concentrating so hard on the pattern that they fail to shoot when they should.

MERRILL CALLOW went thru the "learn your patterns stage" when he first came to Las Lomas. They are established now and the Knights are, and will continue, to give a good account of themselves.

Acalanes, under new head coach Dan Glimes, is going through the "growing pains stage" but, watch them grow as the season goes along. Building a good team isn't a one year deal —actually it takes three years at least to establish a system. The pattern becomes reflex action through constant repetition and only then does a club become a team.

New Officers Replace Old

The Contra Costa Women's Division of Real Estate held the last luncheon meeting of the year November 27 at the El Nido.

Out going officers are Mildred Tinker, president. Zoe Woolsey, vice president. Lenora Tiedman, secretary-treasurer.

The new in coming officers for the coming year are Thelma Braly-president, Lenore Tiedeman, vice president, Vany Knerr, secretary-treasurer.

Waterfowl Areas Holding Averages

State-operated Waterfowl Management Areas are producing slightly better than last year's average number of birds per hunter, the Department of Fish and Game reported today.

Since the season opened on October 12, hunters have bagged an average of 3.3 birds. The average for the whole season last year was 3.1 per hunter. Only five weeks remain in the 1957 season, which closes January 14.

A total of 107,839 birds have been bagged on 11 state and federal areas by 32,726 hunters through December 1. Capacity of the areas during that period was 39,820 hunters. Of the total number of birds, 103,536 were ducks, 2,634 were geese and 1,669 were coots.

Grizzly Island is producing the best average to date, with hunters averaging 4.3 birds. It has also produced the greatest number of ducks (41,805), coots (600), and overall bag (42,540 birds). It also has the largest capacity (12,500 to date) of any of the areas and has hosted the largest number of hunters (10,005).

Colusa leads, as usual, in the goose bag (1,615) and is third in total bag (10,717). Mendota is second in total bag, with 13,22- birds.

Gray Lodge and Colusa are second in the averages, with 3.7 birds per hunter to date, followed by Sutter with 3.6.

The bag of ducks fell off during the pheasant season because many hunters used the areas only for pheasant shooting, but are nevertheless counted as hunters on the areas.

Dear Better Dressers:

They tell me the name of our new satellite is "The Veteran," 'cause it won't work and they can't fire it. But I digress.

I'm here to tell you about my fantastic clothing and other goodies around the place.

WORD OF CAUTION

Firstly, I must tell you folks to stop coming in groups. This is a very SMALL store, see? 3 or 4 at a time is fine. Just don't crowd me to see the LOUIS ROTH SLACK COMBOS. This is a gorgeous pair of slacks, with 2 legs and a belt made of the same material as the sport coat. When you float into a room full of people, they will turn away from the Martinis and stare at you there.

ALSO

The LARGEST assortment of the BEST sport shirts in the United States.

If you want to disprove the above statement, you make a survey. For the trip, I suggest you take along some extra sport shirts purchased here.

Take a gander at the Don Loper neckwear here. Everybody else sells ties, THIS is neckwear, that looks like a million dollars and costs nearly as much.

What the heck. It's only money. Bring it to me,

Mort.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CAROL FESTIVAL, under the sponsorship of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be presented at 8 o'clock next Thursday night at Acalanes High School. Choirs from several Central Contra Costa County churches will sing. One of these is the choir of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Lafayette. With Clarence Gribbon (fourth from left), co-chairman of the event for the Jaycees, a few from that choir scan musical scores during a rehearsal —left to right, Phyllis Bryant, organist; Ruth Wciksrtom, Elaine Ohleyer and (at right) Dr. J. Phillip Dalby, director. Co-chairmen Gribbon and Virge Ramponi point out that admission is free, but suggest that each person attending bring one can of food, to be turned over to local welfare agencies. —Sun photo by Mattson

Christmas Carol Festival Will Be Thursday Night

Again this year, keeping a five-year-old tradition alive, the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce is presenting its annual Christmas Carol Festival.

The colorful program will be at Acalanes High School Thursday at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

Church choirs from the following churches will sing the songs which are a traditional part of the Christmas season:

St. Perpetua's Catholic Church, Lafayette; Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, Lafayette; St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda; Hillcrest Congregational Church, Pleasant Hill; Christ the King Catholic Church, Pleasant Hill; St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek; St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Walnut Creek.

The opening and closing numbers will be sung by the Massed Chorus of Choirs.

The cooperation of many local merchants has made this program possible, as their donations have offset the costs of the programs.

According to Clarence Gribbon and Virg Responi, co-chairmen for the Jaycee program, plans are being made for attendance of more than 750.

Paring will be no problem, due to the excellent facilities at Acalanes High School.

Gribbon states that admission is free, with canned food being collected for the needy from those who wish to contribute.

Holiday Meals Low on Sodium Are Available

Meal-planners who must think of the heart patient in the family when preparing traditional Christmas or holiday feasts received Contra Costa County Heart Association.

The Association's annual holiday menu, complete with recipes for preparing foods suitable for the heart patient on a sodium-restricted diet, is available free.

Many heart patients in Contra Costa County are on sodium-restricted diets prescribed by their physicians, according to Dr. Harold Robinson, chairman of Contra Costa County's special diet committee.

Built around roast turkey, the menu included such trimmings as low sodium dressing, orange pineapple mashed sweet potatoes and cranberry salad. It is topped with such a festive dish as pumpkin pie.

Information regarding meal planning for the holidays for patients on a low sodium diet may be obtained from their physician, or through physician-referred requests to the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

Here's Latest Garden Checklist

Here's your latest Garden Checklist:

1. Camellias, some varieties of which are already in bloom, are available in nurseries for transplanting. This is an especially good time for transplanting, due to the approaching rains.

2. Minimize snail damage by the use of various bug pellets. Ask your local nurseryman what is good to use.

3. Don't overlook the lesser-known tulips and lilies for spring beauty.

4. Sow these seeds for bulb cover: alyssum, linaria, nemophila.

5. Look over the limbs of large trees to see if some clipping is needed before storms set in. Loose limbs can cause great damage.

DRY BATTERY

When your car's battery uses an excessive amount of water the trouble is probably improper adjustment of the voltage regulator or a cracked battery case.

Housing Needs Are Related

Every week, the people of California need 4000 new units of housing, Walter Kaitz told members of the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board, November 25.

Kaitz said that 1000 new residents arrive in California each day, and the number of new people each day is increased to 1600, when births are calculated.

Also, every week there is a need for 100 new classrooms to accomodate 4000 new students, 4500 new telephones, 170 new retail stores.

This is a challenge for all Realtors and real estate salesman, he added.

Give sleep for Christmas

Put an electric blanket on your gift list

A good night's rest would make a wonderful Christmas present . . . and it's yours to give year 'round in the form of an electric blanket. Yes, everyone sleeps better under the gentle warmth of an electric blanket. Here's how.

Just dial the sleeping temperature that suits you, then turn over and zzzzzzzzzz. Luxurious warmth is spread evenly over your entire bed. And no matter how cold it gets during these winter nights, the blanket automatically adjusts itself to your original setting. All you do is sleep! So put it on your Christmas gift list—an electric blanket.

P.S. Because electricity is cheap in California, an electric blanket costs just 1¢ a night to operate!

Enjoy MORE TIME WITH YOUR CHILDREN WITH...

MORE POWER!

...in YOUR HOME!

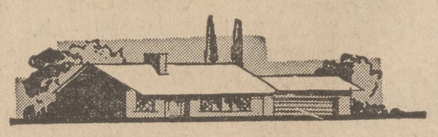
When your home has more HOUSEPOWER, you can do your work more quickly with electric appliances, and spend more time with your children!

The golden minutes are the ones you spend having fun with your children. The times that you and your children will remember in later years are not the times you spent washing dishes, but the minutes you read Mother Goose or romped with them.

With more HOUSEPOWER, an electric dishwasher can give you 2 hours more a day with your children. The most precious gift you can give your boys and girls, the only one they will remember, is yourself. Your love and your time are what they need most.

While an electric range cooks your food automatically, you can take your children for a walk. With more HOUSEPOWER, you do not have to fuss over pots and pans while your children long for a walk

A home freezer can save you up to 4 hours or more of shopping per week. You can save enough time, with more HOUSEPOWER and an electric freezer, to take your children to the park every week.



So, whether you are building a home, buying or remodeling—make sure you get enough HOUSEPOWER so you can spend enough time with your children. Call a competent electrical contractor who uses qualified electricians, and enjoy those golden minutes with your children, the happy times they'll remember.
